

STUNT FLIER IS WED HERE

Louis G. Benzler, 23, former motion picture "stunt" flier and now a Pasadena, Calif., broker, was married here yesterday to Miss Virginia Limacher, 18, young Pasadena socialite. The service was performed by Father Devlin in St. Joan of Arc church.

JACK AND MAX IN FINE SHAPE

KINGSTON, N. Y., June 17. (AP)—Champion Max Schmeling is physically fit and mentally fit for his title bout with Jack Sharkey Tuesday night, a committee of examining physicians agreed today.

ORANGEBURG, N. Y., June 17. (AP)—Jack Sharkey is in better physical and mental condition for his fight with Max Schmeling than he was for his first Schmeling fight two years ago, according to today's report by a committee of examining physicians.

H. M. COLT WINS JERSEY STAKES

ASCOT HEATH, England, June 17. (AP)—A light-hearted crowd, led by women in lavish gowns and men in top-hats, gave King George a tremendous ovation today after his colt Limeight climaxed the Royal Ascot race meeting by winning the Jersey stakes.

TO VISIT HERE
Mr. and Mrs. Harry Danson of Pasadena arrived in Las Vegas last night and will spend the week-end here on business and visiting with friends. They expect to drive to Kingman, Ariz., on Monday and will return to California by way of Needles.

YOUTH AVENGES FATHER'S DEATH

however, he was no longer isolated, as he evidently wished to be, and resented incursions made on the timber of his homestead, and demands for water from his well, the only one in that vicinity, by the newcomers.

JEALOUSY MOTIVE
The Moores are supposed to be two of the settlers whose presence he resented, and Russell's Vegas friends think that his smoldering jealousy of what he considered his rights to the land thereabouts, suddenly flamed into anger yesterday.

HAD GUNS NEAR
Always deriving his greatest pleasure and profit from hunting, trapping and prospecting, Russell formerly lived on a homestead in the Colorado Grand Canyon country, it was said, and has always had several guns in his cabin.

ON VACATION TRIP
R. H. Thompson, accompanied by his wife and son, Dick, left today on a two-week vacation trip, which will take them through most of Utah. They plan to spend a goodly part of their time fishing for the illustrious trout. Thompson operates the Las Vegas Lumber & Supply company of this city.
