PEGGY GOES A'SHOPPING

By PEGGY
When you have that half-hour of time to spend in the garden, so much more fun is added to the work if you first slip into a pair of highly colored pajamas, now being featured at the J. C. Penny Co. store. And here, too, we find the large, gaudy sun hats, which drive away all worry of sunburn and freckles. Or, if you prefer the better grade of beach pajama to lounge in, some smart sets are being shown in two contrasting colors. To finish up this practical lazy-time ensemble, choose one of the vari-colored kimonos that you can so handily slip into after a swim. So that little daughter will feel as smart as her mother, get her one of the print sun outfits, consisting of pajamas, hat, umbrella and little canvas sandals—it will add so much to a child's playtime. And won't one of the younger set have fun in any of the smart beach outfits shown in the Hollywood Style shop. A blue wool bathing suit, with white belt, white diving cap, blue and white beach sandals, and blue slacks comprise the set. The slacks of blue twill, or they come in lighter weight materials, are made on a simple pattern, with white belt and white banding on the trouser leg—they can be so easily slipped into after a swim.

On a hot summer evening, how cool and refreshing it is to slip into cool rayon silk or crepe gowns or pajamas—and so dainty are the beribboned models shown at Brackens apparel shop that our want for lingerie exceeds our necessity. For sport wear we find the printed batiste sets, and for wear under your better frocks, you can secure just the right fitting model in the frilly dance sets, and teddies with matching slips. The pajamas are cleverly cut and all gowns are embroidered or lace trimmed.

For the practical work outfit, dressy and yet easily cleaned, we find at Ronzone's a flat crepe tailored skirt, with severe pleated lines in the front. For any girl following the fashion of youth, these give a lengthened appearance. The green net blouse, with matching costume jewelry and white sport oxfords, make a good outfit for the business girl or older sportswoman alike.

Out of the many lovely frocks seen at the Colonial Dress shop, we are choosing a summer dress, created entirely for the matronly woman. The chiffon skirt is brought to a point on the left front side, thus giving the wearer a slenderer appearance. The top is a lace net of the same pale peach color and although plain at the neck, it is enhanced by puff sleeves of chiffon. The waist overlaps slightly in the front and is fastened at waist and neck by two jewelry clasps. Truly a charming dress for a charming mother, since the color is so suitable for an elderly person.

Adcock & Ronzone have placed on sale at exceedingly low prices, practically all of the new season models, including all different lines and materials. With the passing of this establishment, frocks and shoe styles form extraordinary features.

Although the celebration of baby week is long past, we see in the windows of Carroll's Gift & Toyery a showing of what the well-dressed baby will wear. Included are bonnets of sheer organdie in baby's two colors, light weight blankets, lawn gresses, summer shoes, and numerous playthings just for him. A number of these are new ideas and should add much to his comfort and happiness in the hot weather.

At Beckley's we see a new assortment of hose, featuring especially

RETURNS HOME

Unable to swing through her native dances to the music of modern, Oriental orchestra, Teina Amara, the Gilda Gray of the South Seas, has returned to Tahiti, where she can dance to the music of coconut palms swaying in the wild. Brought to this country as one of the greatest of South Sea dancers, she discovered she could not perform effectively to synthetic music and artificial settings.

the net variety—and these surprising grades are going for much less than their quality demands. Should you chance to choose one of the "Olympic" models mentioned above, a white pump or tie shoe in a good-looking style can be found at Lasky's.
