

APACHE NIGHT CLUB OPENS TODAY

Las Vegas' newest night club will open tonight in a gala bow to Vegas first nighters, when William L. Brown and Bob Robinson throw wide the doors of the Apache Indian Village, in the Apache hotel.

The new cafe has been connected with the fine cooling system that serves the hotel, and the management say it will be the coolest place to spend an evening in all southern Nevada.

High spot of the evening will be the announcement of the winner of the $25 prize for the best name for the restaurant, and the presentation of the prize.

A special menu has been arranged, and the evening will be enlivened by several entertainers imported from Los Angeles. Music for the dancing will be furnished by Clark Higgins and his Monarchs of Melody from Boulder City.
