

POLITICAL NEWS

Now that the last day for candidates to file for office has passed, those who will have their names on the primary ballot are getting into action and telling the voters just how good they are.

Senator Key Pittman will arrive in Las Vegas shortly to get his campaign under way. Senator Pittman is one of the leaders of the Washington administration and a true friend of Nevada. He should be returned to the senate.

H. R. Cooke, prominent Reno attorney, and candidate for the office of United States Senator on the democratic ticket, is in Las Vegas furthering his campaign. Mr. Cooke is a fine man but will have a hard battle to defeat Senator Pittman for that nomination.

The prediction that Archie Grant will draw more votes in the south for the nomination of governor than will Harley Harmon is well founded, Grant is now in the northern part of the state.

John A. Cooper, Reno business man and candidate for governor, is going strong in the north and will receive a large vote from Clark county. Cooper is a successful business man and would give the state a business administration. He is neither politician nor attorney and would be a governor "of and for" the people. The people of the south will have an opportunity to meet Mr. Cooper next week.

Clark county seems assured of having a Las Vegas elected lieutenant-governor. Fred S. Alward will have an easy time at the primary election for the democratic nomination. Bert Henderson also will have no trouble walking off with the republican honors. Both are fine men and either would be a credit to the state.

In the race for sheriff, Joe Keate the present incumbent, seems to be out in front, with Clint Boggs following close behind. Bill Wallace is making a hard fight to win enough votes to secure the nomination.

Roger Foley will have the fight of his life to beat Wm. Scott for the democratic nomination for district attorney. Scott is well liked and has a host of friends throughout the county.

Harry Ausin and Guy Baker will fight it out for the republican nomination—and it will be some fight.

Senator Pat McCarran arrived in Vegas yesterday and attended a meeting of the American Legion at the Barrel House. There were some 90 followers of the senator present. Seems from the talk that we have heard the junior senator is attempting to help Senator Pittman "out." Will take more than McCarran to injure the enviable record of Senator Pittman.

Raby J. Newton, democrat, whose card announcing his candidacy for the State Assembly appears in this issue, would be an excellent representative. He has had valuable experience in public affairs as a teacher in our public schools, as a business man and as a secretary of the Las Vegas Rotary club.

Newton is a business man of excellent judgment and understands the needs of Clark county. If he shall be chosen by the democrats at the primary election as one of its four candidates for the assembly and elected at the general election, he will ably represent the people of Clark county in the Assembly.

"Ted" Withers, son of our old friend, Judge Withers, of Reno, is a candidate for the democratic nomination for the office of Attorney General of Nevada.

We have known the young man for years as one full of energy, enthusiasm and ambition. He has been successful in his practice of law and would, if nominated and elected, make an excellent state official.

Republicans will have three excellent men to vote for as their candidates at the general election for the State Assembly, Harry E. Miller, of Las Vegas; and Doug Rather and Jack Way, of Boulder City.

The three will be on the ballot at the general election, there being four assemblymen to be elected. The democratic candidates for the four places on the ballot must be chosen at the primary election from among the eleven democratic aspirants.

BUS WRINGS MOP FOR HIM

KANSAS CITY, Ohio — (UP) — A Negro janitor here is so lazy he lets a bus wring out his mop for him. Working on schedule, he nearly always has his mop ready when the bus stops in front of his place of employment. He moves to the curb, places the dripping mop beneath a wheel and as the bus pulls away the mop is pressed dry.

CHIEF WANTED PAY FOR RAIN

TOPEKA, Kan. — (UP) — Scarcely had the debris from a recent wind and rain storm been cleared away when a Kaw Indian chief called on the secretary of Governor Alf M. Landon of Kansas, seeking remuneration for bringing rain. Landon held the shower was not sufficient to warrant a special appropriation for his services.

MAGPIES DECREASE

BLACKFOOT, Idaho. — (UP) — The magpie population in Bingham County was depleted this year. The State Fish and Game Department offered a bounty of two cents for heads and agreed to pay five cents a dozen for eggs. Hunters turned in 7,167 heads and 9,928 eggs.

2,500 RABBITS KILLED

SHOSHONE, Idaho — (UP) — The ranchers of the Deitrich tract recently killed 2,500 rabbits in one afternoon, but they barely made a dent in the "bunny" population of this section. The rabbits have caused heavy damage to growing crops, and farmers plan more drives.

TO STUDY IN GERMANY

NEW ORLEANS. — (UP) — George E. Simmons, head of Tulane University's Department of Journalism, has left for Germany where he will spend a month studying in the German Institute for Newspaper Research in Berlin. He also will study the German language at the University of Berlin.

CARD OF THANKS

To the many kind friends that assisted and signed my Petition for Independent Candidate for U. S. Senator from Nevada, sending in 4,270 signatures when only 2,250 were required and that feat accomplished in 8 days. 1700 signatures from Clark County, Washoe and Churchill counties furnishing the balance, I accept it as an elegant gesture of friendship, one of man's choicest possessions. Please accept my most sincere thanks. I hope sometime in the future I may be able to thank you in a more material way.
