Elks to Frolic In Las Vegas Oct. 11-12-13

Three big days of fun and frolic are promised the people of Southern Nevada on October 11-12 and 13, when the famous "Bills" of the B. P. O. E. descend on Las Vegas for their annual State Convention.

Not only will all the Elks lodges in Nevada be here, but hundreds of California lodges will send visitors to their sister state's biggest conclave.

The committee on arrangements headed by Eugene Goldstucker and ably assisted by Roy Griffiths, Art Harris, Carl Belding and Tom Enright has been working feverishly for the past few weeks and promise to leave nothing undone that will help make the affair the best in Clark county annals.

Street dancing, band concerts, speaking and a parade are a few of the features already arranged.

The Elks club will be convention headquarters and visitors will register there.

Anyone with rooms to rent during the three days are requested to get in touch with the committee, at the Elks club.

Announce Date Of Examinations

The Nevada State Employment Service and the National Employment Service announce competitive examinations to be held at the high school in Las Vegas, Saturday, September 29, 1934, from 8 to 12 in the morning and from 1 to 5 in the afternoon.

Former Resident Passes Away

Mr. Nye Dobbs, resident of Las Vegas something like twenty years ago, passed away in Portland, Oregon, July 10, 1934.

The news comes through a letter written by Mrs. E. S. Yount of Los Angeles, to Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Hawkins of this city.

Mrs. Dobbs survives her husband. Mr. Dobbs during the years he lived in Vegas, made many friends through his fine personal qualities. All of the pioneer residents of Las Vegas will learn of his passing with regret.

Visits Editor

J. C. Belding, an old time friend of the Editor of The Age, paid us a short visit Thursday on his way from Minnesota, where he had spent the summer, and his home in Los Angeles. Of course he took the time to see the work progressing at Boulder Dam.

Mr. Belding is the father of Mrs. Winnie Burnham who was the wife of Earl Burnham who lived in Las Vegas during the year 1905, and is now engaged in the manufacturing business in Los Angeles.

ATTENDING U. S. C.

Don Stewart, a graduate of the Las Vegas high school, is leaving Sunday for U. S. C. where he will resume his studies.

Tri-State Meet B. of L. F. & E. Here Oct. 3, 4, 5

Final arrangements are being made by the committee in charge of the West Coast Tri-State Convention of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen and its Ladies' Society to be held here October 3, 4 and 5.

Actual delegates to the two organizations conventions number approximately 700. This is nearly double the number of delegates to ever attend a convention in this locality.

The grand parade will be held on the evening of October 3rd at 7:00 p.m. All the merchants and business houses of Clark county are invited to participate. Those who had displays in the Labor Day parade are urged to save the decorations for the coming event.

In the last issue of the Brotherhood's National Magazine the following article appeared:

"Final arrangements are being made by the committees at Las Vegas to extend a truly hearty Western welcome to all brothers and sisters who will be with us for the great West Coast Tri-State Union Meeting in our city October 3-5. Be sure to come if you possibly can. It will be a red letter event, for we will have the pleasure of discussing Brotherhood matters and hearing our officers explain our problems, and in addition, our entertainment will include a close-up view of the marvelous construction work going on at Boulder Dam, which is indeed a modern engineering miracle.

Our headquarters will be the Apache hotel. Owing to illness of Chairman Roy A. Richart, the writer whose address is Box 864, Las Vegas, Nevada, was chosen to take his place. Following is an outline of the program:

Program

Registration opens October 2 at Hotel Apache, and continues on October 3.

October 3

9:00 a.m. to 12 noon — Opening joint meeting, El Portal theatre. Address by Mayor, Grand Lodge officers, state and other public officials. President Robertson of our Brotherhood has definitely expressed his intention to be with us on this occasion, and amongst the subjects on which he will address us are the Railroad Retirement (or Pension) Act and the law amended the Railroad Labor Act, both passed at the last session of Congress.

1 p.m. to 5 p.m. — Business meeting of Brotherhood and Ladies' Society in lodge halls.

7 p.m. — Parade.

October 4

9 a.m. to 12 noon — Business meetings.

1 p.m. to 5 p.m. — Business meetings.
