CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY

316 South Fourth street, across from grammar school, is a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Mass. Meets every Sunday at 11 a. m. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Christian Science Reading room: 307 Beckley building, First and Fremont streets, open week days, except holidays, from 1 p. m. until 4 p. m.; evening except Wednesday, from 7 until 9 o'clock.

"Matter" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, September 23.

The Golden Text is: "Tremble, thou earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob." (Psalms 114:7.)

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment." (John 7:24.)

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Divine Science reverses the false testimony of the material senses, tions of error. Hence the enmity and thus tears away the foundation between Science and the senses, and the impossibility of attaining perfect understanding till the errors of sense are eliminated." (P. 273.)

At the Palace — Sunday and Monday

Ronald Colman is doing his best to protect Loretta Young in this scene from "Bulldog Drummond Strikes Back," 20th Century's sequel to the earlier mystery thriller, which United Artists brings to the Palace Theatre Sunday and Monday. Reading clockwise we have Warner Oland, C. Aubrey Smith, Mischa Auer, Charles Butterworth, Kathleen (Panther Woman) Burke, George Regas and Una Merkel.

For Justice of Peace

TOM CARROLL, candidate for Justice of the Peace for Las Vegas Township, has the training and experience to fit him most fully for the duties of that important office. More than that, he has quality of mercy tempered by the ripeness of judgment which only years of active experience in the practice of law and the conduct of business affairs can bring to a man.

Tom Carroll was admitted to the bar by the Supreme Court of California and practised his chosen profession in San Francisco for eight years before becoming associated with the San Francisco branch of R. G. Dun & Co.

He came to Nevada from San Francisco in 1917 and soon decided to throw his lot with the future of Las Vegas. He has been active in the real estate and insurance business, preferring that line of activity in this city, but he retains his membership and good standing in the California bar.

He also served as a member of the Assembly in the last legislature, playing an important part in the proceedings.

Friends of Mr. Carroll point with confidence to the fine personal qualities of the man and to the fact that his qualifications for the important office of Justice of the Peace of Las Vegas Township are of the very best in all respects. — Political Adv.
