

The Old and the New

Patrick J. Cooney, Los Angeles attorney and organizer of the first Roosevelt-for-President club, predicts that Upton Sinclair, right, will be in position to succeed President Roosevelt "in 1940." Cooney, a staunch, old-line Democrat, is a close friend of the former Socialist. They are shown together at the Democratic state convention in Sacramento.

America's Youngest Mother

Mildred Morgan, 11, with her tiny baby, Caroline Frankie, at the Jefferson Hospital, Jefferson City, Tenn. The baby, normal in every respect and weighing 7½ pounds at birth, brought the mother the distinction of being America's youngest mother. The father of the baby is a 14-year-old schoolboy.
