

LAS VEGAS SOCIETY

Business Women Hold Meeting Thursday
The Professional and Business Women's club met Thursday evening at the Apache cafe.

Mesquite Club Meeting Postponed Until October 19
The first regular meeting of the Mesquite club has been postponed until Friday, Oct. 19, as a courtesy to the B. of L. F. E. ladies. Mrs. Harley A. Harmon will serve the club as its president for the coming year.

Epworth League Has Impressive Installation
The newly elected officers of the Epworth League of the M. C. church were installed Sunday evening by Rev. Ray E. Orr. The candle light installation with its special music was beautiful and impressive. The following officers were installed: Arthur Wengert, president; Clarence Howery, treasurer; Ruth Willis, Secretary and four vice-presidents, Vincent Ashcroft, Martha McClintock, Robert Dutton and Inez Dodson.

Bridge Luncheon Planned at Charleston
Mrs. R. D. Balcom is entertaining with a bridge luncheon at her cabin at Charleston Park next Monday. This is a delightful time to visit this mountain resort as the trees are gorgeous in their autumn colors. The ladies are anticipating a pleasant outing.

Invitations Issued For Luncheon Thursday
Mesdames Harold Morse, R. D. Balcom and C. D. Breeze have issued invitations for a bridge luncheon at the Apache, Thursday, October 11.

Entertained Thursday With Luncheon
Mrs. H. L. Blanding was hostess at a delightfully informal luncheon Thursday at her home on Charleston boulevard. The guests included Mesdames A. W. Ham, Guy Baker, J. H. Lightfoot, C. E. Pembroke, R. Taylor, R. Thomas, R. W. Martin, O. W. Yates, O. C. Boggs, Leo McNamee, Will Beckley, W. R. Bracken, W. E. Ferron, Judd Parker, W. N. Schuyler, S. J. Lawson, E. W. Cragin, R. D. Balcom and C. P. Squires.

Marie Ogles Married Saturday At Whipple Home
Marie Ogles and Melvin Follick were married at Mrs. Le Roy Whipple's. Rev. Orr of the Methodist church performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Follick will make their home in Redondo, California.

Luncheon Given At Apache Hotel
Mesdames Jake Beckley, R. D. Balcom and C. D. Breeze entertained with a bridge-luncheon at the Apache.

Entertained With Pan Party
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pembroke were host and hostess Wednesday evening when they entertained with a "Pan" party. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Ferron, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ham, and Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Boyer.

Dinner Given At Midway Tavern Tuesday
Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Mikkelsen entertained at dinner at the Midway Tavern Tuesday evening. Their guests were Mr. and Mrs. R. J.

Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Boyer, and Messrs Peter Bullin and Jack Harris of Los Angeles.

Will Entertain Inter-Se Club Tuesday
Mrs. Roy W. Martin and Mrs. Emily Ball will entertain the Inter-Se club at the home of Mrs. Martin next Tuesday.

States Announce

New color combinations for 1935 auto license "tags" have been announced by 29 states and Alaska, District of Columbia, Hawaii, and the Panama Canal Zone, according to a report from the license department of the Automobile Club of Southern California.

West Virginia is the only state keeping the same colors, black on yellow. This combination will be used during the first half of 1935. Colors will be reversed on the plates of 14 states, including California, which will have orange figures on a black background.

The most popular color combination for 1935 is black on yellow to be used by five states and Hawaii. White on dark blue, white on green, and black on white will be used by four states each; orange on black by two states and Alaska; white on black by three states; and white on maroon, yellow on black, blue on white, green on white and black on orange by two states each.

Carnival Show To Open Tuesday

The Hilderbrand United Shows, featuring the carnival type of amusement will open a five day engagement next Tuesday, October 9, and concluding Saturday, October 13. The shows will be located on the lot next to the U. P. park on South Main street.

The show, carrying seven up to date riding devices and 7 "side" shows will be the first to play inside of the city limits under the new city license ruling.

IN ALAMO ON BUSINESS

Neal Campbell spent the past week in Alamo on business.

In The WEEK'S NEWS

NEW PRESIDENT — Albert Fischer (left), retiring president, hands the gavel of office to Raymond S. Doerr, 22-year-old U. of Michigan student, who is the new international president of the Guild Alumni, composed of the 39 American and Canadian youths who have been awarded university scholarships in the Fisher Body Craftman's Guild coach-building competitions.

NO MAN'S LAND — National Guardsmen survey strike pickets along the Rhode Island sector of the textile industrial war. At this plant pickets were allowed to patrol the plant under the watchful eyes of militiamen.

TAIL-LESS AIR FIGHTER — The Pterodactyle Mark V, unique two-seated tail-less fighting plane being tested for the British air forces. The gunner, seated at the back, has an almost unimpeded field of view and of fire.

AT EASE — Red satin trousers and sapphire velvet jacket are combined in a stunning pair of lounging pajamas for Miriam Hopkins, movie star. The velvet jacket has dolman sleeves and a rolled kerchief collar which knots on the side.

IN AGAIN! — King football is back with us again, with thousands of college and school teams preparing for the annual fall battles. Here Art Ahonen, Washington half-back, demonstrates his punting abilities.

FORD SNIFFS AT WASHINGTON — What goes on in Washington is "unimportant", says Henry Ford in his latest pronouncement. Writing in the current issue of The American Magazine, he declares: "Laws cannot ruin this country. We are too strong and resourceful a people to be hampered much by legislation."