Rev. and Mrs. Palmer Visit Las Vegas

Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Palmer, of Eagle Rock, California spent Monday and Tuesday in Las Vegas. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schwab. Rev. Palmer is pastor of the Community church of Eagle Rock but back in 1911 was the pastor of the Las Vegas M. E. church. He and his charming wife endeared themselves to everyone in the community and when they were transferred to another charge twenty years ago we felt we had suffered a great loss. A few of the old friends are left and these gathered at the home of Mrs. Mary Ellen Lake and enjoyed a dinner in honor of these very welcome guests. Tuesday was spent at Boulder City with C. P. Squires. After partaking lunch at the Mess hall they departed for their California home. The following is the list of the dinner guests: Rev. and Mrs. E. A. Palmer, Mr. and Mrs. David Farnsworth, Rev. and Mrs. Ray Orr, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Schwab, Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Mundy, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. STETSON

Making ADVERTISEMENTS
OUT OF CUSTOMERS!

EVERY DAY, a dozen or so men come into our store and say, "Let me see a hat like Mr. Blank's."

It's all a plot! When we sell a man his Fall STETSON we try to give him not only smart style, but the exact type most suitable to his features. As a result, he becomes a walking advertisement for us!

And the best part of it is that the "victim" of our strategy gets a hat that keeps him happy as long as he wears it! Of course, the secret of our success is that STETSON hats do look so much better on nearly everybody!
