MRS. J. E. ADAMS

Mrs. Adams, I have just learned is the other member of the "team" which is coming here on Sunday to tell us about General Convention and especially about women's work in the Church. The team is being sent out by our National Council to stimulate a more informed loyalty by telling us what the Church is doing and planning. It is a new kind of mission in Church knowledge, not an appeal for money. Let us be loyal and support this fine effort by all being present at both meetings.

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering-cast over all people, and the veil that is spread over all nations. He will swallow up death in victory; (Isaiah 35:7,8).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "It is only by acknowledging the supremacy of Spirit, which annuls the claims of matter, that mortals can lay off mortality and find the indissoluble spiritual link which establishes man forever in the divine

The Christian Science Reading Room

Alfred Gordon
 O quiet shelter from the heat of day,
 Where weary ones athirst may come and drink
 The living waters flowing peacefully,
 And gain fresh views of how to work and think!
 And then, refreshed, they sally forth to fight
 Anew life's battle, primed for victory
 O'er every ill that would obscure the sight
 Of heaven now and here eternally.

Many who read within thy sheltered walls
 Day after day, and grapple with some load,
 Or soon or late a miracle befalls
 That makes them rise and seek the open road
 Of high endeavor! Happy they who find
 Oasis here from earth's incessant strife—
 For them rich blessings from immortal Mind,
 Unfolding days of Truth and Love and Life!
