

HIGH SCHOOL NEWS

Exhibits Interesting

For the past months the class divisions of the high school have been collecting material for class exhibits to be displayed in the study hall. As a result some very interesting articles have been gathered. An extensive exhibit of Indian relics, curiosities from Europe, Spain and Mexico, and South Sea Islands and Boulder Dam are indicative of the nature and extent of these class exhibits.

Pep Rally Held

The largest and most successful Pep rally of the year was held on Friday, November 16, in honor of the Logan football team. Speeches were given by members of both teams, including Captain Attarback, of Logan, Captain Lias, of Las Vegas. The school band led by Mr. Larson played several selections. Yells were led by Mary McCrosky and Louis Bland.

To Have Dancing Class

Under the direction of Miss Evelyn Chappe, physical education teacher at the grammar school, dancing classes are being organized for students of the Las Vegas schools. Miss Chappe is a graduate of the Kings Academy in Spain and studied dancing in Paris for some years. The classes will be held after school, and will consist of classes in Spanish and Russian, toe, tap, acrobatic, oriental, and straight ballet. Each pupil will select his course.

Wildcats Defeat Logan

The Las Vegas Wildcats defeated the strong Logan, Utah, eleven last Saturday by a count of 23 to 0, brought the Wildcats string of consecutive high school victories to 34. This victory advanced the Wildcats hopes of a decisive victory over the Sparks high school Railroaders, the second best team in the north of the state. Fallon defeated Sparks, and this leaves Fallon and Las Vegas as the only teams in the state who are undefeated thus far this season.

If the Wildcats overpower the Sparks Railroaders, the championship game will probably be played the 8th or 15th of December, place undecided, but chances point to Butcher Memorial field as the location for the deciding of the State Championship.

DEATH CLAIMS LEROY DUTTON

Le Roy Dutton, who underwent an operation for ulcers of the stomach last week Friday, at the Los Angeles hospital, passed away late Sunday evening. Mrs. Dutton received a wire Sunday that he was sinking rapidly and left immediately for Los Angeles but arrived after his death. Mr. Dutton has been in poor health for several months but his condition had not been considered as being especially serious and his death was a shock to his family and friends. The deceased leaves a son, Robert, and a daughter, Edith, who is a student at the state university.

Southgate Chapter Honors

Masons Thursday

The informal dinner given at the M. E. church Thursday evening by Southgate chapter honoring the masons was a very happy affair and everyone had a jolly time. The dinner which was served by the ladies of the church, was delicious. It was interspersed with music provided by Mr. and Mrs. Oliver and Matt Kelly. Later several vocal selections and a Kangaroo Court were enjoyed. It is hoped that this is the forerunner of several such occasions.
