HOG AND WHEAT PAYMENTS

IN NEVADA TOTAL $48,310

Nearly fifty thousand dollars in rental and benefit payments has been received by Nevada farmers from the federal government under the wheat and corn-hog production control plans of the agricultural adjustment administration, according to word received by the University of Nevada agricultural extension service.

The exact figure, covering the period to October 1, was $48,310.90, of which $25,680 went to the hog growers who joined in the program, while $22,630 was paid to wheat growers in the state.

Lyon county led all others in the state in the sum received, farmers in that subdivision of the state having been paid $14,413, or nearly twice as much as those in any other county.

Churchill farmers ranked second with $7,984, while ranchers in Douglas received $7,569, in Clark $972, in Elko $4,522, in Nye $703, in Ormsby $178, in Pershing $2,751, in Washoe $5,0009, and in White Pine $1,694.

Greatest payment for corn-hog program, Eureka, Humboldt, and Ormsby are not represented.
