

Plan Community

(Continued from Page 1)

Legion, Veterans, Lodges, Churches and Schools. The arranging of baskets will probably be at the Elks Hall where the supplies will be assembled.

Publicity—F. F. Garside and C. P. Squires.

Considerable discussion arose during the meeting Tuesday evening

"Wildman"

Hugo Mayer, 52, "wild man of Curry County," Ore., who was arrested after a month's pursuit by officers in the lower Rogue River wilderness, confessed that he shot and killed Robert Fauntz, rancher, last Nov. 6. The toothless hermit said Fauntz plotted to drive him out of the country or kill him.

New Coach

Leonard B. Allison, better known as "Stub," who was appointed to the position of head football coach at the University of California following the resignation of Bill Ingram. Allison had been assistant coach under Ingram.

upon the best method of avoiding duplications by the individuals and organizations desiring to care for certain families, and at the same time make certain that none are overlooked or neglected. All those knowing of cases of destitution were asked to report them to Dr Myers, and those desiring to deliver baskets to certain families were asked to report same to the committee. In short, it was agreed that by proper cooperation of all concerned, every family could be provided for and none overlooked.

Chairman K. O. Knudson reported that plans are already being carried out for the "White Christmas" of the public schools. Each pupil may bring some article of non-perishable food to the schools, to be distributed as part of the Christmas dinner baskets. In the past the amount of food collected in this way amounted to more than a truck load, and while the gift of each child is expected to be well within the limits of financial ability, the while amounts to a handsome total.

Included in the school children's while amounts to a handsome total, dition to food there will be articles of clothing, toys and other things to please the children in destitute families who might otherwise go unremembered.

Dr. Myers and the committee on distribution desire to emphasize the desirability of cooperation by all who are taking part in the effort to bring a Merry Christmas to the unfortunate of Las Vegas.

OBSERVATIONS

(Continued from Page 3)

AN EARLY START

In looking at The Age files for December 1915, I observe that I was then promoting the idea of a federal building for Las Vegas and that our Congressman, Ed. Roberts, had just introduced a bill in the House to appropriate $75,000 for the purpose.

Well, it took a little longer than federal building, not the $75,000 one, I expected, but we now have the but a handsome structure costing four times that amount.

Another Treat for AGE Readers!

EXCLUSIVELY to Las Vegans, in THE AGE, there will appear the magic love story, 'We Live Again.' This novelization will run over a period of seven consecutive weeks, a new chapter each week, starting next Friday—you'll like it!

A NEW STAR BECOMES A GREAT STAR

Just as a story-teller tells best the story of himself, an actress plays best the drama that is herself. And close to Anna Sten's heart lies the story of "Resurrection" . . . Tolstoy's cry for mercy to those who suffer . . . With a great role, she fulfills the rich promise of a great actress!

the Samuel Goldwyn presentation of

ANNA STEN and FREDRIC MARCH
We Live Again

A ROUBEN MAMOULIAN PRODUCTION

Adapted by Maxwell Anderson, Leonard Praskins and Preston Sturges from the novel "Resurrection" by Leo Tolstoy

Released thru UNITED ARTISTS

Start With the First Chapter of the Story . . . FRIDAY December 21 in the AGE