

Rotary Enjoys Fine Program

(Continued from Page 1)

Boulder Dam area. They estimate approximately $18,000,000 has been spent in southern Utah largely as the result of their campaign of publicity.

Rotarian Fred Sutton, head of the high school of Fresno, Calif., in a short address, gave it as his opinion that there is no city in the southwest with advantages to compare with Las Vegas.

Rotarians Ray Germain of Tonopah and Al Short of Hermosa Beach, brought greetings from their respective clubs.

Dr. Wm. S. Park was appointed chairman of a committee to arrange for the visit of District Governor Ed DeGroot.

Mr. Sumner prophesied that the paved highway from his home town, Kingman, to Las Vegas, will be completely finished within the next year.

The meeting was closed by Bob Russell, with a touching story of the work of Las Vegas Rotary Club in giving new life and usefulness to a helpless and unfortunate victim of a terrible accident, and said he is "proud to belong to an organization which took a helpless lad and gave him a new life." He closed the meeting by enthusiastically leading in singing his favorite "Home On the Range."

Harry Anderson left Wednesday for Los Angeles.

SPLINTER TRAVERSES FINGER TO TOE

Eighteen years ago A. J. Morris, of Lithgow, Australia, who was working a blast furnace, was struck on the hand by a fragment of steel which pierced the skin and entered the second finger of his right hand.

Since then he has occasionally felt pain in his arm and back, but eventually he forgot the incident.

It has, however, just been recalled to him in no uncertain manner. While in his bath he was astonished to discover the fragment emerging from his foot. — Australian Press Bureau.

Everyone admits the high purpose of laws tending to punish the man who sells fake securities. Unfortunately, however, is it impossible to wipe out the practice entirely because it is still illegal and inhuman to annihilate the suckers, and no way has been found to educate them.

Remember the fellow who used to greet you like this: 'Good morning, have you seen the latest Literary Digest poll?'

AMERICAN WINDMILLS

The Hollander who says that America has nothing to compare with the Dutch windmill should attend a football game and see the cheer leaders in action.—Grand Island Independent.

Reports are that the cranberry crop is not as great this year as it was last. But the recent campaign proved that the crop of applesauce in 1936 was bigger than ever.

HOUSE WARMING AT CAHLAN HOME

The old custom of "hanging the crane" or "warming the hearth," which gave expression to the spirit of friendliness and hospitality, was exemplified on Christmas day at the new home of John and Julia Cahlan. Many friends called during the afternoon to felicitate the host and hostess and inspect the charming house. It was a delightful affair and the guests on departing wished the occupants and their lovely home "a long life and a merry one."

CHANCE FOR REVENUE

Maybe the federal debt could be wiped out by a tax on straw votes. —Burlington Hawkeye Gazette.

Prominent New Deal politicians and statesmen tell us that the emergency is over. What do they mean by emergency—November 3?

Newspaper reports are that Governor Landon is swamped with the number of letters he is getting at Topeka. And one thing he is thankful for is that the writers are not demanding political jobs.

FLORIDA

Governments in Florida are trying to discourage a winter rush of the unemployed to that state. They are not, however, relying on a hurricane to make it a thorough job.—South Bend Tribune.

Just about the time a fellow saves enough money so he can go places and do things rheumatism sets in.—Salina, Kansas, Journal.

Who can remember when a youthful Spaniard was just a pleasant young fellow who strummed a guitar and sang romantic songs under the summer moon?

GASSED

A Chicagoan, listening to a broadcast in a closed garage, was overcome by gas. Rescuers arrived in the nick of time, and dialed off the politician.—Geneva, N. Y., Times.

Now that the election is over we will get more tooth paste and less banana oil on the radio.

We played Santa Claus to the world once and got stuck in the chimney. Let's don't do it again. The chimneys are even more dangerous now than they were then.

Our office boy wants to know if that book, "Gone With the Wind," is something about last summer's wages.

Perfect harmony—a freckled-faced girl in a polka-dot dress leading a coach dog.—Topeka Capital.

IT IS A BLOW

It's a blow to him when a man realizes that he is as great as he ever will be, and that he'd better be concerned about the comforts of old age rather than the ambitions of youthful years.—Atchison Globe.

Even his bitterest enemies will have to admit that in joining a molasses company Professor Tugwell picked himself out a sweet job.

LAS VEGAS WEATHER

Following are the maximum and minimum temperatures as registered by the thermometers of the government cooperative weather station in this city:

| | Max. | Min. | Prec |
|-------------|------|------|------|
| December 23 | 68 | 32 | |
| December 24 | 59 | 34 | |
| December 25 | 59 | 33 | |
| December 26 | 59 | 32 | |
| December 27 | 59 | 32 | .13 |
| December 28 | 48 | 38 | .30 |
| December 29 | 42 | 35 | Tr. |
| December 30 | 46 | 27 | Tr. |
| December 31 | 50 | 38 | .52 |

Precipitation for the storm amounted to .95 of an inch.

POLITICAL BED-MAKING

A wisecracker maintains that when a politician makes up his bed he should lie in it. Unfortunately he seems more inclined to make up his bunk and lie out of it. —Kitchener Record.

They say that county infirmaries won't be necessary under the old age pension plan. Perhaps not, but it might be a good idea to save them as a haven for the American taxpayer.

A BRIGHTER PROSPECT

A New York physician warns that cold baths are harmful. Now let some other doctor turn thumbs down on calisthenics and vegetable plate dinners and life will be 100 per cent perfect.—Sacramento Bee.

F. W. McKechnie Jr., president and publisher of the Nevada State Journal, accompanied by his mother and Clark Pettical, have been guests at Hotel Sal Sagev.

BULLS, PLEASE NOTE

The humanitarians will have to admit that the Spaniards don't treat their bulls any worse than they treat each other. —Arkansas Gazette.

There are too many men today who are like the darky dockwalloper sitting on a bale of cotton at a Louisiana depot. When a cigar drummer asked him, "Boy, want to make a quarter carrying my grips," the descendant of Ham, after searching through all his pockets said, "Why, no sah. Ah done got myself a quarte, sah."—Hays, Kansas, News.

Commenting on the results of the election, it is consoling to the G. O. P. to think that maybe 17,000,000 Americans can't be wrong.

A little boy in Altoona said to his mother the other day: "Ma, am I a descendant of monkey?" "I don't know," replied the mother, "I never knew any of your father's folks."—Altoona Tribune.

THE FARM PROBLEM

To most urban dwellers the farm problem is that of avoiding hitting cows and hay wagons on the highways.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

UNUSUAL FACTS REVEALED

—by "Movie Spotlight"

ROUGH-RIDING
CHARLES STARRETT,
"THE COWBOY STAR."
WAS AN ENTRANT IN A RUBBER-HORSE WATER DERBY COVERING A DISTANCE OF 180 FEET.

A PRODUCER RECEIVED THE WRONG CHANGE. HE STARTED TO COMPLAIN...TOOK A SECOND LOOK AT THE CASHIER. IRIS MEREDITH, AND THEN SIGNED HER FOR THE MOVIES.

SY JENKS OWES HIS SCREEN CAREER TO HIS POINTED CHIN WHISKERS. HE ONCE SHAVED THEM OFF AND WAS ON A HOLIDAY TILL THEY GREW BACK.

Columbia Feature Service