LAS VEGAN LEAVES FOR NEW YORK

Mrs. Roscoe Thomas left Monday evening for New York City, where she will visit relatives and enjoy a season of grand opera. On her homeward journey she will spend a few days in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Frank DeVinney entertained the members of the Aerial Bridge Club at luncheon Wednesday.

SON IS BORN TO HERBERT WALDMANS

A son was born Wednesday morning at the Las Vegas hospital to Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Waldman. Dr. Hale B. Sloan was the attending physician. Mrs. Waldman is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Weiner.

DENIAL

Herbert Hoover denies reports that he will establish a residence abroad. In fact, he will not even move to Maine or Vermont.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

PERSONALS

George Meacham, postmaster at Goodsprings, who has been confined in the Las Vegas hospital, has returned home.

Mrs. Ruby Thomas, Mrs. Metta Riggs and Miss Roxie Copenhaver, members of the grammar school faculty who spent their Christmas vacation on a motor trip to the City of Mexico, have returned.

Mrs. August Berning Jr. was hostess to her bridge club Wednesday afternoon. The guests were Mesdames L. Woitishek, G. Johnson, H. Slavin, A. Lusch, J. Hemphill, R. Stephens, F. Garside, J. W. Squires, and the hostess, Mrs. A. Berning Jr.

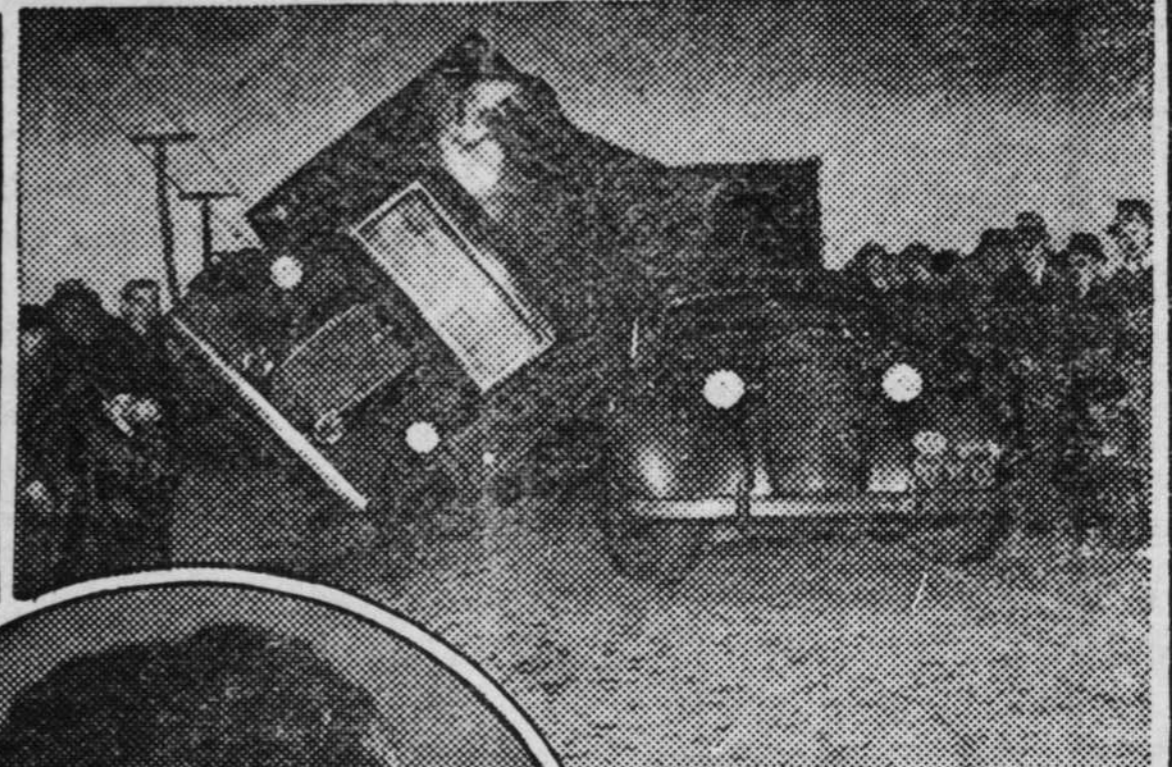

Nowadays when a girl tells you that she has "got your number" it may be that she has been looking at your social security card.

The old fashioned mud road was a little hard to navigate, but while you were on it there wasn't nearly so much danger of being hit by a speed demon.

In The WEEK'S NEWS

SENTENCED FOR PATRICIDE—22-year-old Edith Maxwell, who at a retrial for the murder of her father, won a five year reduction from the original court edict of 25 years. She is at liberty under $15,000 bail.

SUDDEN DEATH FOILED—Careening wildly on a highway near Creedmore, N. Y., this heavy truck landed on the roof of a passing Buick, threatening death to its occupants. The car's unisteel turret top held sturdily, however, and the passengers escaped without a scratch.

HOMEMAKER HONORED—Mrs. Charles Hillicker, of Denver, Colo., who has been appointed a "Reader-Editor" by the Woman's Home Companion, as a representative homemaker from the Mountain States. She will collaborate with staff experts on various home problems.

STAR IN ACTION—Carlo Morelli, baritone of the Metropolitan Opera Company, shown during a rehearsal for the opera season which opened recently in New York.

MARSHA HUNT—Paramount Pictures player, featured in a two piece silk crepe dress with pleats giving front fullness, trimmed with white and having a cluster of flowers at the high neckline. The wide sleeves are gracefully gathered below the elbow.
