CHURCHES

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY

216 South Fourth street, across from grammar school, is a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Massachusetts. Meets every Sunday at 11 a. m. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. and Wednesday evening at 8:00 o'clock.

Christian Science reading room, 112 North Third street, open week days, except holidays, from 1:15 p. m. until 4 p. m. Evenings, except Wednesdays, from 7 until 9 o'clock.

"Soul" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, February 14, 1937.

The Golden Text is from Psalms 62:1, "Truly my soul waiteth upon God: from him cometh my salvation."

The Lesson-Sermon includes the Bible passage, "Yea, in the way of thy judgments, O Lord, have we waited for thee; the desire of our soul is to thy name, and to the remembrance of thee." (Isa. 26:8).

Also the correlative from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "We cannot deny that Life is self-sustained, and we should never deny the everlasting harmony of Soul, simply because, to the mortal senses, there is seeming discord." (p. 396).

LAMB POT-PIE WINTER TREAT

Lamb pot-pie and dumplings seem a perfect choice for the main dish of the meal on a cold winter's day. This dish is delicious, when well made, and is "filling" enough to give one a feeling of real satisfaction.

From the nutritive standpoint, lamb pot-pie and dumplings are an excellent combination, too, according to Inez S. Willson, home economist. The dumplings provide the starchy accompaniment for the protein and minerals of the lamb, and the minerals and vitamins of the vegetables used with it. Hungry diners, however, seldom stop to balance their diets in this way, but they do know that lamb pot-pie with dumplings just "reaches the spot."

Lamb Pot-Pie

2 pounds shoulder of lamb, cut into small pieces.

- Flour for dredging.
- Lard for browning.
- 1 onion.
- 2 cups peas.
- 4 or 5 carrots, diced.
- Salt and pepper.
- Dumplings.

Dredge lamb with flour and brown in hot lard. Add diced onion season with salt and pepper, cover with hot water and allow to cook slowly until done, about two hours. Long enough before serving that they will be done, add the diced carrots and peas. For the last fifteen minutes of cooking, drop dumplings on top of lamb and vegetables, cover tightly, and let cook until done, without removing the cover. Serve at once on a large platter with the dumplings arranged on tip of lamb and vegetables. Thicken the liquid and serve this in a separate dish.

AUSTRALIAN OCTOPUS HATCHES 250,000

An octopus at Taronga Park Zoological Gardens, Sydney, Australia, has hatched 250,000 progeny. The remarkable care with which she watched over her eggs attracted much attention. At first it was thought she would survive the ordeal, but in due course she died, following nature's custom. — Australian Press Bureau.

Those who rail at their local editor because they think they are not getting as much publicity as they deserve, should be thankful he does not print everything he knows about them.—Rooks County, Kan., Record.

Football classics are now fought out in the Rose Bowl, the Sugar Bowl and the Orange Bowl. Why have we overlooked the Gold Fish Bowl?
