

SOCIETY

Mesdames R. D. Galcom, C. D. Breeze and H. M. Morse entertained with a bridge luncheon last Saturday afternoon in the cocktail room at the Apache. The affair was greatly enjoyed by the large number of guests.

Mrs. Al Moser was hostess to the members of the Hostess Club Tuesday. The guests enjoyed a delicious luncheon seated at a long table. Needlework filled the afternoon. The guests included Mesdames E. G. McGriff, Emily Ball, Mary E. Lake O. C. Boggs, H. Brockman, W. N. Schuyler, D. S. Farnsworth, C. P. Squires, H. Adams, Frank Ball and Geo. Ball.

Mrs. H. Adams entertained the Thimble Club of the Royal Neighbors Thursday evening. Mrs. Adams and Mrs. Elizabeth Downing were the recipients of many gifts, the one as a gracious hostess, and the other as a reminder that she was one year older. Mrs. Florence Peterson of Los Angeles entertained the guests with both vocal and instrumental numbers.

Little Miss Darleen Snider celebrated her fifth birthday anniversary Saturday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Snider.

Southgate Chapter, O. E. S., met in regular session Monday evening with Mrs. Marjorie Pyeatt, W. M. presiding. The chapter is very happy in the possession of a new baby grand piano which will add materially both to the ritualistic work and the social life of the order. Refreshments were served and a social hour enjoyed. The kitchen in the new temple is now completely furnished.

Mrs. W. S. Park entertained the members of her contract club Wednesday at luncheon.

The Thursday night Contract Club met at the home of Mrs. Sam Lawson at its last session.

Mesdames W. S. Park, Oscar Peifer, Roscoe Pyeatt and Ruby White were hostesses at the Past Matrons' dinner which was served at the Methodist church Friday evening.

Mrs. J. M. Rigger was the recipient of a genuine surprise party on Thursday when a number of old-time friends walked in upon her at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Garehime, where she was spending the evening. Games and refreshments made the occasion a very pleasant one. The honoree was presented with a gift with the hope that it would bring to mind her desert friends while she is in the east. She is leaving Saturday morning with her sister, Mrs. Helen Anger, for her old home in Louisville, Kentucky. The following is the guest list: Mesdames King, Bond, Lodwick, Keach, Wolf, Dimock, Mikulich, R. Gronberg, Gally, Stewart Hawkins, Day, Johnson, Mundy Davison, Bulette, Conklin, Wait Brooks, Crosby, McGovern, Parks E. E. Gronberg, Squires, Garehime, and Miss Helen Stewart.

The Daughters of Utah Pioneers met at the L. D. S. church Wednesday evening. James Jepson, one of the Utah pioneers, was guest of honor, and contributed several songs to the program.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. L. Charette and daughter spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Payne. They resided here for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. Reginald Pegrim and son, Albert, and Miss Alice Henderson spent the week end at the A. S. Henderson home.

Robert and George Rappaport spent the weekend with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Rappaport. They are students at the Urban

Military Academy in Los Angeles, and left to resume their studies on Monday evening.

Rt. Rev. Thomas Jenkins, Bishop of Nevada, ended his visitation in Clark county with a Lenten service followed by a business meeting at Christ Church, Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Russell have been called to Los Angeles by the serious illness of Mr. Russell's mother.

Dr. and Mrs. A. R. Mildren have started the construction of a new home on property purchased from John S. Park on Charleston boulevard.

J. W. Wilson, who has been ill with pneumonia at the Mildren Clinic, is reported as convalescing.

Dr. and Mrs. F. R. Mildren will spend the week end in southern California.

The Jewish residents celebrated the feast of Purim Thursday evening.

Gilbert Ross, state director of the WPA, spent last week end in Las Vegas.

In The WEEK'S NEWS

PROTEST SUPREME COURT CHANGE—With opposition to the proposed change in the Supreme Court growing daily, J. Frederic Burns and George E. Hill, leaders of the Maine state legislature, present Vice-President John Garner with their state's protest against the proposal.

NATION'S WHEELS ROLL AGAIN—Business, slowed down by the auto strike, picks up again as these General Motors employees go back to work and cars start rolling off the line. The workers lost millions in wages during the strike, which ended when the union minority retreated from its demand to represent all employees.

EXPERT HOMEMAKER—Mrs. Samuel Arnold, of Ben Avon Heights, Pittsburgh, Penn., who has been appointed a "Reader-Editor" of The Woman's Home Companion to advise on homemaking problems. She is active in charitable and community affairs and directs Girl Scout camps in four states.

LIGHT SHADES FOR SPRING—Pastel shades are being sponsored for spring suits and here Marian Marsh wears a smart outfit of pale forget-me-not blue wool trimmed with a coachman's collar of black Persian lamb. The jacket has a flared peplum and is belted in black patent leather.

RESCUED—In this striking picture Coast Guardsmen help from the breeches buoy one of twenty-six seamen, the captain and the owner they rescued from the Cottonova after she was grounded on the reef-fringed coast of Oregon.

GUN-GIRL CAUGHT—Norma Parker, New York's girl cafe bandit, whose brief but spectacular career in crime ended when she was seized after robbing another restaurant with the aid of a toy pistol.