Jeffries Aids Legion Fights

Under the direction of Jack Dennis boxing-card matchmaker for the American Legion, a most interesting program is arranged for Friday evening, April 2. It is the intention of the Legion to revive the boxing game in Las Vegas in such a way as to attract the best of the fighters of the coast and keep the local fans filled with eager enthusiasm.

As one of the features of the evening, James J. Jeffries, former champion of the world, will be present to greet the big crowd and give his encouragement and assistance to the development of Las Vegas into one of the important fistic centers of the west. He should be given the enthusiastic welcome to which his position in the great game entitles him.

Matchmaker Dennis will present two great fighters for the main event of his first card, when Augie Soliz and Babe Nunez tangle for six rounds of furious fighting, unless disaster to one or the other ends the contest sooner. Both boys are said to be near the tops in Hollywood Legion Arena and Olympic stadium.

Hede Watanabe, high-class featherweight from the Jeffries stables, will tangle with Everet Jure in the semi-finals.

The special event will match Joe Morales of this city, with Tony Mendez of Los Angeles.

Georgie Trott will tangle with Al Jiminez and Carmen Georgorini of the Jeffries stables will meet Henry Gutteriez of Compton, Cal.

There will be two other four round events, bringing the total of fighting to 34 rounds on Jack Dennis' opening bill.

Elks Officers Duly Installed

Past Exalted Ruler Wm. E. Orr, assisted by other past exalted rulers, installed the newly elected officers of Las Vegas Lodge No. 1468 last night in the new lodge room.

The ceremonies were carried out in a dignified and impressive manner. The officers installed were:

Fred O'Donnell, Exalted Ruler; John Graglia, Esteemed Leading Knight; Joe Ronnow, Esteemed Loyal Knight; Bob Boyer, Esteemed Lecturing Knight; Charles Bush, Tiler; Walter R. Bracken, Treasurer; O. K. Adcock, Secretary, and James Cashman, Trustee.

Rodeo Drive Is Very Successful

The drive for funds with which to assure proper financing of a Rodeo in connection with the annual Hellsdorado celebration in May started slowly and with some discouragement, but met with splendid success after the Horsemen's Association got to work seriously.

The sum of $2,000, considered ample to meet any possible deficit in funds, has been oversubscribed and preparations are under way for one of the most striking Rodeo shows ever seen in this region.

The success of the drive was assured by the enthusiastic assistance of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

City Election Filings Made

Filings for positions on the city election ballot to noon today (Friday) are as follows:

City Commissioner—Second Class, James H. Down; Fourth Class, Herbert Krause.

City Attorney — George Marshal, Roland Wiley, William L. Scott.

City Clerk—Viola Burns.

Municipal Judge—Thomas M. Carroll, J. P. Wagner.

There are many rumors of others who intend to file before the time expires Saturday, April 3.

Rotarians Plan Hollywood Trip

Bill Ferron, chairman of the "On To Hollywood" committee of Las Vegas Rotary Club, made an urgent plea that all members attend the great convention of the Second District of Rotary, the largest in the world, April 26, 27 and 28.

"This will probably be the last and greatest of the district Rotary conferences," said the speaker, "because the district will be divided at the coming convention of Rotary International. The trip can be made at very small cost and Vegas Rotarians need spend only two days away from business if crowded for time, to enjoy the best part of the great gathering. Las Vegas will attempt to again take the lead in attendance which gave Las Vegas much favorable comment some years ago. This can be done if the members of Vegas Rotary will give their cooperation, and Las Vegas will secure much favorable publicity.

Carroll Files For City Judge

T. M. Carroll, who has acceptably filled the responsible position of municipal judge for the past two years, has filed notice of his candidacy for reelection.

Judge Carroll has acquired valuable experience in dealing with those who are victims of misfortune during his term of office and has demonstrated that his policy of "tempering justice with mercy" is the best for all concerned. Not that he fails to impress the full weight of the law's penalties on those who are criminal and vicious by nature. But he believes in considering the circumstances and conditions surrounding the unfortunates who are brought before him.

Judge Carroll's friends believe he has been a good and conscientious official and that he is entitled to reelection at the hands of the voters.

Fremont Tavern Is Nifty Place

In the Fremont Tavern, just opened in the room formerly occupied by Mesquite Grocery, Las Vegas has another excellent bar designed along the most modern lines.

The place has an air of handsome elegance, rather than garish or glaring effects. The bar and back bar are beautiful pieces of work in mahogany, with smooth, satiny finish.

The Fremont will brighten the corner of First and Fremont streets with very attractive neon signs.

L. J. Howard is president of the Fremont Tavern, Inc., and John Massina will have charge of the bar operations.

Many Attended Elks Reception

The new Elks' building was opened to the general public last Saturday night, and in spite of the rain, was crowded from nine o'clock until the small hours of the morning with hundreds of Elks and their friends.

Excellent music was provided and hundreds of couples took advantage of the opportunity to dance in the main lodge room. The athletic department in the basement was given over to refreshments.

It is estimated that approximately two thousand people visited the club during the evening.

Masonic Grand Master Coming

Grand Master of Masons of Nevada T. T. Fairchild will make the annual visitation to Vegas Lodge No. 32, F. & A. M., Saturday evening, April 10.

Worshipful Master Walter E. Eond, with his fellow officers of Vegas lodge are making preparations to give the Grand Master a pleasant and fitting reception in the new Masonic Temple.

Mrs. Fairchild will accompany her husband on the trip and will be entertained by the ladies.

The visitation schedule of the Grand Master includes Pioche, April 8; Caliente April 9; Las Vegas April 10; Boulder City April 12, and will wind up with the visitation to his home lodge at Tuscarora early in May.

Santa Monica To See Boulder Dam

Secretary Oliver Goerman of the Chamber of Commerce has received a letter from the Santa Monica, Cal., Chamber of Commerce, stating that they are sponsoring an excursion to Boulder Dam, leaving Santa Monica Saturday night, April 10, and reaching Las Vegas early Sunday morning.

The day will be spent in seeing the dam and enjoying Lake Mead and it is expected that the party will return to Las Vegas late in the afternoon in order that those present may see something of Las Vegas after dark.

The party will leave by train late Sunday evening. It is expected that there will be at least one hundred persons in the party.

Wagner Files For Municipal Judge

John P. Wagner, a resident of Las Vegas since about 1928, has filed notice of his candidacy for municipal judge. He will oppose Judge Tom M. Carroll at the coming city election.

Mr. Wagner has taken an active interest in public affairs since he has been in Las Vegas. He came from Chicago, where he practiced as industrial engineer and business counselor and community organizer.
