

SOCIETY

The Mesquite Club will hold its annual election of officers this afternoon at the club house. The high school class in dramatics will present a play and plans will be discussed for the State Federation of Women's Clubs to be held here on April 14, 15 and 16.

The senior and junior classes of Las Vegas high school will be honor guests of Miss Maude Frazier at a dance to be given at the grammar school gymnasium this evening.

Mrs. C. S. Wengert entertained two of her card clubs the past week. On Wednesday her guests were seated at a long table decorated with spring flowers and enjoyed a delicious luncheon and a delightful hour. The afternoon was given over to contract. The ladies present were Mesdames Mary Fogarty of Minnesota, who is spending the winter with her sister, Mrs. Ella Wengert; W. E. Orr, J. D. Smith, Will Beckley, O. C. Boggs, Mabel Ullom, Frank DeVinney, Chas. Dimock, James Cashman, W. B. Mundy, R. D. Balcom and Charles P. Squires. On Thursday her guests were Mesdames O. W. Yates, W. E. Ferron, J. Beckley, R. D. Balcom, James W. Squires, W. N. Schuyler, Sam Lawson and the hostess.

Mrs. W. R. Bracken was hostess to the members of the Tuesday Contract Club at its last session. After a pleasant social hour around the luncheon table the following ladies enjoyed an afternoon of contract: Mesdames Sam Lawson, J. T. Waters, W. E. Ferron, W. N. Schuyler, Will Beckley, Guy Baker, Chas. P. Squires and the hostess.

Mrs. Anna Coughlin and her son, Frank Coughlin, returned Tuesday morning from San Diego and Los Angeles, where they were called by the illness and death of their son and brother, Joseph John Coughlin, Jr.

The Las Vegas Parent-Teacher Association met in the grammar school auditorium last Monday evening with the president, Mrs. C. S. Wengert, presiding. A musical program was given by Miss Chandler's Five-A class. Miss Frazier gave a talk on the financial side of education. The membership banner was given to Miss Helen Smith's room for the second time. The club is planning a luncheon as part of the entertainment at the coming convention of the State Federation of Women's Clubs. The April meeting will be in charge of Rev. Ford Gilbert, George Marshall and L. E. Burr.

A number of members of the Wah-Un Study Club made the trip to Overton and spent several hours at the Museum. A picnic luncheon was eaten on the shore of Lake Meade.

Desert Chapter, O. E. S., of Boulder City will entertain Mrs. Jean Muir, Grand Matron O. E. S. next Friday. Las Vegas Chapter has been invited to attend the banquet and the ceremonies in the evening. It is expected that Southgate Chapter will have a large representation.

Mrs. Hilda Pine was hostess to the members of the Past Noble Grand's Club at its annual meeting. The following officers were elected to serve for the coming year: President, Mrs. Della Capen; vice-president Mrs. Marie Blad; secretary Mrs. Pearl Atherton, and treasurer, Mrs. Reba Arnett. Refreshments were served by the hostess. The following Past Noble Grands were present: Mesdames Della Capen, Elizabeth Bailey, Josephine Johnson, Reba Arnett, Genevieve Christensen, Harriet Logan, Ruth Chappell, Agnes Mott, Pearl Atherton and the hostess.

MRS. NELLIE LOWE LAID TO REST

Funeral services were held in Overton Monday afternoon for Mrs. Nellie Young Lowe. Mrs. Lowe died in Las Vegas Saturday, having been brought here for medical treatment. She leaves her husband and nine children to mourn her passing.

DEATH VALLEY SCOTTY STOPS IN LAS VEGAS

Walter Scott, more familiarly and widely known as Death Valley Scotty, was a visitor in Las Vegas several days this week. He came by way of Kingman and was on his way to the famous "Castle" in the northern part of Death Valley.

JEFFRIES WILL HELP REFEREE THE FIGHTS

James J. Jeffries, former world's heavyweight champion, arrived in Las Vegas last night. He is registered at the Apache hotel. This evening he will officiate as referee at some of the fights on the American Legion card at the War Memorial auditorium.

Baseball and Broadway Join Hands

Lanny Ross with Ford Frick (left) and with Gertrude Lawrence (inset).

ONE of the theatre's most outstanding personalities and one of baseball's leading figures will be on the same radio program over the NBC network Thursday, April 1. Gertrude Lawrence, famous on the New York stage, and Ford Frick, president of the National League, will both be the guests of Lanny Ross on his Show Boat program that night.

Striking characteristic poses which should make both persons feel at home. Lanny is shown above preparing for the coming program. Frick will tell about his spring tour around the baseball training camps and Miss Lawrence will re-enact one of her favorite stage characterizations. (NBC-Red network, 9:00 to 10:00 p.m., E.S.T., with rebroadcast for Western listeners on split NBC-Red and Blue network from 11:30 p.m. to 12:30 a.m., E.S.T.)

Springtime for Maxine

BEWITCHING MAXINE, the slender Princess of Song on Phil Spitalny's "Hour of Charm," steps forth in a lovely array of spring togs.

For daytime she has chosen a "jacket suit" of dark blue sheer tulle, accented by a white linen blouse with detachable linen lapels buttoned on the jacket. The suit, selected from the collection of Kay Morrison, one of New York's famous young designers, also features zipper fastenings on the shoulders and skirt. A dark blue felt hat with side-rolled brim and white chamois gloves complete the costume.

For evening what could be lovelier than this glamorous gown of "Victory Blue" chiffon with flowing skirt which sweeps the floor. The flattering décolleté is interesting in its detail with bands embracing the yolk and short sleeves giving the softening effect of fine shirring.

Maxine's enchanting melodies are broadcast on the "Hour of Charm" Mondays at 4 p.m. (E.S.T.) over NBC network. On April 26th Spitalny and his all-girl band will change to an evening hour from 9:30 to 10 p.m. (E.S.T.) over the same network under the continued sponsorship of dealers of the General Electric Company.