W. C. German, exp. charges	.44	Evlvn Williamson, election officer	5.00	Motor Supply Co. Inc., supplies	78.40	Without reviewing the glowing record of such brilliant elder justices as the late Oliver Wendell Holmes, there arises a question as to whether senators and representatives who are past seventy years of age should have the right to vote judges of seventy off the bench. The administration has ardent defenders in the senate who have left the three score and ten-year mark behind them. McAdoo is seventy-four; J. "Ham" Lewis, of the once pink whiskers, is seventy-four; George Norris is seventy-five this year; Hughes has just gone to the senate from Delaware at the age of seventy. How do these men stack up as judges of judges?—Philadelphia Inquirer.
