

Pioneer Panaca Women Is Dead

Funeral services for Mrs. Sarah Keele Wadsworth were held Monday last in the L. D. S church in Panaca, with Elder F. C. Lee officiating. The speakers included Elders David Keele, F. C. Lee and Derrill Ronnow. The invocation was by Osborne Lee and the grave was dedicated by Lester Lee.

Pall bearers were the five sons of the deceased, Allen, Edwin, Arnold, Frank and Gilbert Wadsworth, and a grandson, Merle Adair. Hymns by the choir included "Oh My Father," "I Need Thee Every Hour" and "Sweet Hour of Prayer."

Mrs. Florence Wadsworth rendered a solo, "Dry Your Eyes."

From the Caliente Herald we learn that Mrs. Sarah Wadsworth who died Sunday morning after a serious illness of several weeks, was the youngest daughter of the late Samuel Keele and Annie Elizabeth Hess Keele, Mormon pioneers. The Keeles knew the Prophet Joseph Smith in Nauvoo and left there with the exodus and crossed the continent in the hand-cart train.

Mrs. Wadsworth was born August 31, 1868, in Panaca, where all her life was spent with the exception of five years' residence in Fallon. She married David Wadsworth in Panaca, who passed away about two years ago, and twelve children were born to them to whom she devoted her entire life.

In 1927, while residing in Fallon, Mrs. Wadsworth suffered an illness which caused her to be a semi-invalid the remaining years of her life. She was a patient, cheerful sufferer and kept house for her two youngest sons.

Surviving are three daughters, Madaline W. Buehler of Bristol, Annie W. Higgins and Ella W. Montgomery of Pomona Calif.; five sons Edwin of Fallon; Arnold of Wamboldt ranch; Allen, Frank and Gilbert of Panaca; twenty-one grandchildren and thirteen great grandchildren. All of her children were at her bedside when the end came.

Swartz Named State Chairman

George L. Swartz, of Elko, was unanimously named chairman of the Democratic State Central Committee at a meeting held in Reno. He will be assisted by Mrs. Harriet Spann of Reno and John Burns of Yerington as vice-chairmen.

Swartz has been a life-long Democrat and a resident of Elko for 25 years, and while not heretofore prominent in state Democratic councils, has been quite active locally and has a large acquaintance throughout the state.

He was endorsed by state officers and prominent members of the party in all sections and had no serious opposition for the position. Swartz succeeds Malcolm McEachin, who has held the chairmanship since the last party convention at Lovelock and who was recently appointed secretary of state by Governor Kirman.

There will be no active campaign between now and the next state convention which will elect a new chairman, except to keep intact the organization, promote harmony and lay plans for the future, Swartz said.

Not having been identified with any particular faction and being generally acceptable to all, the selection of Swartz as chairman is interpreted by prominent Democrats as a genuine effort to harmonize all interests and insure success in the election next fall.

Swartz says "I am deeply appreciative of the honor conferred on me by the State Committee and the confidence expressed by those of my own county and the state generally who so generously endorsed me.

"I hope in some measure to justify their confidence by consistent effort and appreciation of the cooperation of all.—Elko Daily Free Press:

TWO LADS WILL SPEND SUMMER AT BRYCE CANYON

Richard Williams, son of Mrs. Hazel Williams, and Bruce Kelly, left on Thursday morning for Bryce Canyon, where they will be employed as musicians during the summer months.

Williams plays the trumpet and Kelly the saxophone, and they anticipate a pleasant as well as a busy time.

COFFEE MEASURER

This new coffee dispenser, by a turn of the release lever as illustrated, measures the exact amount of coffee for a perfect cup of the beverage. Not only is it a life saver for housewives who are poor guessers, but it serves as a container for storing coffee after the original package has been opened, thus eliminating the annoyance of cans and bags.
