best guarantee of peace. He declared that no soldier of the of war between foreign nations and declared that "o soldier of the United States should ever set foot on foreign soil to aid in foreign wars."

Declaring that immigration from foreign countries should be restricted until every citizen of the United States is fully employed, he said in closing:

"For the members of this organization there can be only one 'ism'-- AMERICANISM. 'WE HAVE KEPT THE FAITH.'"

Lieutenant-Governor Fred S. Alward, introduced by Commander H. E. Hazzard of the Las Vegas Post, acted as master of ceremonies in a happy manner, keeping the crowd well entertained through the somewhat slow progress of the dinner.

Among those who were introduced and who spoke briefly were City Commissioner Jas. H. Down, who welcomed the distinguished guest in behalf of Mayor Arnett, who was unable to be present; George P. Long, Commander of the Department of Nevada; Ralph Lowry, engineer of the U. S. Reclamation Bureau in charge of Boulder Dam; Commander H. E. P. Squires of The Las Vegas Age; Archie Grant, chairman of the committee on arrangements to whom much credit is due for the success of the entertainment; Senator Frank M. Ryan; District Attorney Foley; the commander of Boulder City Post; Past Commander A. T. McCarter of Las Vegas Post; O. A. Kimball, president of Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce; Mrs. Morrison, president of the Auxilliary to Spanish-American War Veterans; City Commissioners H. P. Marble, Harve Perry and Herb Krause; Bob Kaltenborn, president Las Vegas Kiwanis Club; Judge Abe Schur, justice of the peace of Boulder City; John Cahlan of Las Vegas Review; Ragnald Fyhen, president of State Federation of Labor; Art Phillips, chairman of the Railway Brotherhoods; Ward Wright, president Central Labor Council; Bill Brown, president of Building Trades Council; E Von Tobel, Jake Beckley; Rev. Wessels of the Lutheran church; Father Callahan of the Catholic church; Adam Kramer, of the Spanish-American War Veterans.

Community singing was led by the master of ceremonies and several vocal selections were rendered by Lucille Sowinski and Mrs. Fred Gilmer, with Mrs. James Farnsdale accompanying on the piano.

Comrades were present from Death Valley and several other points. Following the speaking many of the veterans and their ladies enjoyed an hour of dancing to the encouraging strains of The Meadows orchestra.

Thursday National Commander Kearney was taken on a tour of Boulder Dam and Lake Mead, under guidance of Chief Engineer Ralph Lowry.

On his various sight-seeing trips National Commander Kearney was escorted by police cars with the usual noisy sirens.
