"SHOOTING THE SUN"

"SHOOTING the sun" is fun to any merchant marine cadet, but it's also serious business in learning how to navigate a ship. So First Officer Ernest Prather, of the Grace Line's "Santa Elena," shows Cadet Leonard Burger how to perform one of the seaman's most traditional duties.

In Sioux Falls, N. D., 19 women are said to have formed a club composed of women who "get spanked by their husbands when they need it." They declare that such a procedure makes a woman feel that her husband really cares for her.

Friedhoff Gets New State Post

CARSON CITY — William Kelly Klaus has resigned as state director of unemployment compensation, and Governor Kirman appointed George W. Friedhoff as his successor, the appointment to take effect within a few days. So far as is known Governor Kirman never officially accepted Klaus' earlier resignation as liquor tax supervisor which may automatically return him to that position.

Later it was announced that Friedhoff will take over the duties of unemployment compensation director, and Klaus will return to his position as liquor supervisor.

It was indicated that the reason for the change was that the state tax commission desired to have Klaus return to the liquor supervision. Klaus told the United Press: "I was very happy as liquor supervisor and I shall be glad to turn over the unemployment work to Friedhoff."

Friedhoff was leaving his position as state director, Federal Housing Administration, because of the curtailment of activities here.
