

CHURCHES

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SOCIETY
 316 South Fourth street, across from grammar school, is a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Massachusetts. Meets every Sunday at 11 a. m. Sunday school at 9:30 a. m. and Wednesday evening at 8:00

Christian Science reading room, 112 North Third street, open week days, except holidays, from 1:15 p. m. until 4 p. m. Evenings, except Wednesdays, from 7 until 9 o'clock.

"Matter" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, September 19, 1937.

The Golden Text is from Leviticus 19:4, "Turn ye not unto idols, nor make to yourselves molten gods: I am the Lord your God."

The Lesson-Sermon includes the Bible passage, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you." (Matt. 6:33).

Also the correlative from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "We bow down to matter, and entertain finite thoughts of God like the pagan idolater." (p. 214).

Columbia Church of the Air will radiocast a Christian Science program from New York City under direction of the Committee on Publication for the State of New York and conducted by Harry C. Browne former First Reader of Second Church of New York City, Sunday, September 19, 1937, from 9 to 9:30 a. m., released over KOH.

Just in receipt of the following announcement from the Committee on Publication for the state of Utah, Mr. Clarence I. Waters: "A Columbia Church of the Air program on Christian Science, conducted by Harry C. Browne, a former First Reader of Second Church of Christ, Scientist, of New York City, will be released over station KSL Sunday, September 19, from 12:30 to 1 p. m. mountain standard time.

"You will note that this particular Columbia program is scheduled to be radiocast from New York City at 12 noon, Eastern Standard time. As the 10 a. m. period over station KSL is already taken, the station director has promised to accommodate us by having a transcription made of this program and then releasing it at 12:30 p. m., Mountain Standard time."

Don't forget to drop them a card of appreciation please.

Dining in Open a Treat for All When Menu is Properly Arranged

(Accessories by Hammacher Schlemmer, N. Y.)

A repast of cold cuts, a mixed green salad, an assortment of cheeses with beer to top it off as the beverage of health and moderation, is the perfect answer to a Summer Night's supper, particularly with table settings as smart and inviting as those shown.

IN the Summer when sultry days dull the appetite, hot kitchens put housewives' nerves on edge and even the dining room feels stuffy, the good old lawn often furnishes a comfortable refuge and solves the mealtime problem as well. That's where home dwellers have it over apartment residents and if the home dwellers happen to have appropriate garden furniture for al fresco dining, that's an extra stroke of luck.

Outdoor dining calls for simple menus, easily prepared and readily served. A platter of cold cuts is ideal, for instance, along with potato salad, an assortment of cheeses, a few pickles and olives and a few radishes thrown in for good measure.

Beer is the perfect beverage for informal dining. In bottle or can, it can be easily stored and chilled in your refrigerator and it requires no preparation in serving. Cooling and nutritious, it blends perfectly with every item on the menu.

For a quick supper or a midnight buffet out on the porch after the last rubber of bridge has been played, why not try ripe tomatoes with shallot French dressing, cold sliced ham, fresh, crunchy rolls, light potato salad and fresh pineapple sticks? Again beer is your appropriate beverage.

Another out-of-doors menu calls for a cold meat platter of liverwurst, salami and summer sausage, together with a combination egg and potato salad and the usual olives, pickles and celery, all more fully enjoyed with a glass of foam-crested beer.

Hossfield Sets New World's Speed Typing Record

GEORGE HOSSFELD of West Englewood, N. J., typed at the rate of 139 net words per minute in the International Typewriting Contests at the Canadian National Exhibition, Toronto, Canada, on Saturday, August 28. This constitutes a new world's record under official International Contest Rules. Hossfield set a tremendous pace on his Underwood, beating his previous record performance of 1929 by four net words per minute. New records were also hung up by Grace Phelan of Etna, Pa., in the World's Amateur Championship, and by Margaret Faulkner of Toronto in the Canadian Amateur Championship.

Ely Organizes Junior Chamber

Representatives of Las Vegas Junior Chamber of Commerce enjoyed the fine hospitality of the people of Ely, and took the preliminary steps toward forming a Junior Chamber in that city, according to Frank A. McNamee, Jr., head of the delegation.

Those who made up the Vegas party included Pat Clark, Bob Courtright, Bob Ritter, Ed Stone and Frank McNamee, Jr., national director and president of the Las Vegas Junior Chamber.

At an enthusiastic meeting at which Vail Pittman and George Doyle of the Ely Chamber of Commerce offered the young fellows every cooperation, the Ely lads present pledged themselves to form a branch of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, naming J. O. Epperson temporary president and Irvin Borchert temporary secretary.

The regular organization meeting was set for Wednesday, September 15.

Members of the new club include: Dan Ronnow, Jack Lynch, W. Dudley, Dr. J. E. Culbert, Jerry Culbert, Dewey Simons, Waldo Hagen, Norman Stratton H. Horton, Tony Harrison, H. Bowen, John Doherty, Irvin Borchert, J. O. Epperson and George Doyle, representing the Ely Chamber of Commerce and Mines.

No Slogan On License Plates

Larger license plates for Nevada automobiles would result if suggestion that the slogan "One Sound State" be added to the 1938 plates is adopted.

Secretary of State McEachin and Warden Lewis of the state prison, after studying the proposal and making estimates of the additional cost, decided that the extra expense is not justified.

Nevada automobile license plates are manufactured at the prison.
