

Las Vegas, "The Electrical City" — Boulder Dam Power Invites Industries

VOL. XXXIII

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, FRIDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1937

NUMBER 39

U. P. Oldtimers Form New Club

The Union Pacific "Old Timers" club, consisting of company employees of not less than twenty years' of service, has been formed with the following officers:

E. W. Nungesser, president; W. C. German vice-president; J. H. Davis, secretary-treasurer.

The board of governors consists of Conductor N. H. Hamlin Engineer M. M. Tenesch, one year term; Car Inspector W. C. Olive and Fireman Jas. A. Measures, Jr., two year term; Machinist W. E. Fitzgerald and Warehouse Foreman M. E. Black, three year term.

The Ladies' Auxiliary to the Old Timers Club was organized with a large number of members.

One of the first public activities of the organizations will be attendance at the dinner to be given in this city October 2 in honor of Mr. Jeffers, about to become president of the Union Pacific system to succeed Carl R. Gray, retired.

OFFICIAL VISITS CAMP

Hon. Charles H. Taylor, assistant director C.C.C., Washington, D. C., Dr. Weidman corps area educational advisor, Presidio, San Francisco, Calif., and Mr. Field, district educational advisor of Fort Douglas, Utah, inspected Company 573 at Boulder City the first of the week.

Mr. Taylor is on an official inspection trip of C.C.C. camps located in the Ninth Corps area.

After the inspection, Captain Charles L. Hall of Boulder City conducted the party through the dam.

MRS. STEPHENS HOSTESS

Mrs. R. J. Stephens was hostess to the members of her bridge club Wednesday at luncheon at the home of Mrs. L. Woitishak. Those present were Mesdames Woitishak, Garside, Hemphill, Lash, Squires, Johnson Slavin and the hostess.

LAS VEGAS WEATHER

Following are the maximum and minimum temperatures as registered by the thermometers of the U. S. Cooperative Weather Station at Las Vegas for the past week:

	Max.	Min.
Sept. 17	109	64
Sept. 18	107	65
Sept. 19	103	64
Sept. 20	96	63
Sept. 21	98	65
Sept. 22	91	66
Sept. 23	92	66

C. P. SQUIRES,
Cooperative Observer.

Dinner Honors Scrugham Party

Congressman James E. Scrugham, accompanied by Congressman J. W. Ditter of Pennsylvania, Chas. A. Plumley of Vermont, and J. O. Fernandez of Louisiana, were guests of honor at a dinner given under the auspices of the Chamber of Commerce Monday evening. They are members of the sub-committee on appropriations for the navy. A large delegation from Boulder City attended the dinner.

Tuesday and Wednesday they devoted to a trip up Lake Mead into Grand Canyon, leaving Las Vegas by plane Wednesday.

A group of naval officers, including Lieutenants Harper, Thayer, Bertachy, Boles and Fredericks, and Naturalist Harwell joined the party here.

Pianist Plans Second Concert

The noted Hungarian pianist, Ervin Nyiregyhazi, will be heard again next Monday evening at the War Memorial auditorium, under the auspices of Clark County Volture No. 306 of the "Forty and Eight."

At his first concert, sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce, he was enthusiastically received and it is expected that a large number of music lovers will avail themselves of the opportunity to hear this nationally known musician.

Popular prices will prevail, adults 75 cents, and students 50 cents.

A program of the world's finest piano music has been selected as follows:

- Rigoletta FantasiaVerdi-Liszt
- Nocturne E FlatChopin
- Miserere from Il Trovatore.....
-Verdi-Liszt
- Serenade Schubert
- Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2.....Liszt
- 10 Minutes Intermission
- Humoresque Rachmaninoff
- Reverie Schuman
- Malaguena Lecuona
- Song Without Words, Tschalkowsky
- Faust Waltz Gounod

The Mesquite Club will open the fall program with a luncheon next Friday, October 1, at 1:15 at the Methodist church. Members desiring to attend are requested to notify either Mrs. F. A. Gibson, hospitality chairman, phone 763, or the club president, Mrs. E. Winter, phone 421-J.

Rotary Program Talks Football

Las Vegas Rotarians Thursday noon has a continuation of the contest for song leader between Leo McNamee, Doc Martin and Bob Russell, which had been running several weeks. The competition was so keen that President Frank Gusewelle decided to carry the contest over into next week.

Under the leadership of Coach Harvey Stanford, the program for the meeting was put on by high school students.

Miss Friedman opened the entertainment by singing two numbers, "Doreen" and "Lullaby."

Coach Stanford introduced Capt. Ray Watson of the football team, who gave the schedule of Wildcat games as follows:

Sept. 25 — Cedar City game at Cedar City.

Oct. 2 — Carbon high school of Price, Utah, in Las Vegas.

Oct. 8 — Panaca high school in Las Vegas.

Oct. 18—Ely at Ely.

Oct. 23 — Dixie College of St. George, in Las Vegas.

Oct. 31 (Sunday) — Sherman Indians of Riverside, Cal., in Las Vegas.

Nov. 6 — Compton College, Cal., in Las Vegas.

Nov. 13 — Open date.

Nov. 19—Ogden, Utah, high school in Las Vegas.

Nov. 25 — Reno high school in Reno.

Oren Wells gave the Wildcats' "sportsman's code."

Earl Montgomery presented a list of football "don'ts."

Bill Woofter talked on "team spirit."

Coach Stanford stated that the football team is grateful for the support given by Las Vegas businessmen, and presented a paper on the financial prospects of football in Las Vegas which, because of loss of voice by the coach, was read by Judge Orr.

ART HAM FRATERNITY MAN

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Ham have received word that their son, Art Ham, Jr., a graduate from Las Vegas high school, has been pledged to Sigma Nu fraternity at the University of Nevada, where he is taking a preparatory course in law. He is also being seriously considered as football material for the "Wolf Pack."

Clarence Heckathorne, Jack Pott-hoff and George Deverell, all graduates of Las Vegas high, are also members of Sigma Nu.

Chamber Hears Highway Plans

At Tuesday's meeting of Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce, Bob Kaltenborn reported on the attendance of himself and C. D. Baker at the "Westways" highway meeting at Bakersfield.

He stated that the Bakersfield people are promoting a new trans-continental highway starting at Fort Landing, N. C., on the Atlantic coast and which they hope will eventually pass across the lower end of Death Valley. He commented on the fine hospitality of the Bakersfield people and their friendly sentiment toward Las Vegas. Also, he declared that the weather at the time of their stay in Bakersfield was very hot.

C. D. Baker reported on the Four-States Highway meeting in Ely which, he said, was very harmonious and resulted in the re-election of all the old officers.

The Chamber of Commerce and Mines of Ely had arranged a fine program of entertainment, he said. The principal address of the convention was made by Robert A. Allen, state highway engineer.

Tom Wolfe of Western Air Express, stated that Dr. Wm. S. Park has offered a fine collection of archaeological specimens for the airport exhibit.

Murray Ollman urged that all school children enter the competition for a new and expressive name to be applied to the Charleston Park winter sports area. A first prize of $10 and a second prize of $5 are offered by Mr. Wollman for the name selected.

The Nevada Finance & Development Co. was elected to membership on the avorable report of the membership committee.

The application of Miller's Bakery was received and referred to the committee.

Episcopal Synod Plans Discussed

A meeting was held Thursday evening at the Parish House of Christ Church and plans discussed for the Episcopal synod which will meet in Las Vegas next spring.

This synod includes the eleven western states and will bring the clergy and men of note from these states to Las Vegas for a four-day session.

There are many details to be worked out for the entertainment of some 600 guests.