

Women Demos To Meet in Reno

Holding the first meeting of its kind in the history of Nevada, democratic women from all parts of the state will meet in Reno October 30 for an institute on government to be conducted by the State Council of Democratic Women.

The meeting will be held in the chamber of commerce rooms in the civic auditorium, and presiding officers will be Mrs. Harriet G. Spann, state vice-chairman; Mrs. Thomas Carroll Mrs. Albert Saxton and Kathryn Hearn.

Mrs. James H. Wolfe, former director of the women's division of the democratic national committee, will be the principal speaker at the business sessions. Guest speakers at the council banquet will be Senator Key Pittman, Senator P. A. McCarran, Congressman James G. Scrugham and Governor Richard Kirman.

Examinations Are Postponed

CARSON CITY, Oct. 21.—Prof. C. C. Smith, supervisor of the examinations which are to be held for the Nevada Unemployment Compensation Division, this week announced that the examinations, originally scheduled for the third and fourth Saturdays in October, have been postponed until November 6 and 13.

The examination dates were advanced upon telegraphic advice from George W. Friedhoff, division director, who is now attending a national unemployment compensation conference in Washington, Smith said.

The examinations are being held in accordance with the unemployment compensation law for the purpose of securing division personnel on a merit rating. Present personnel, appointed on a temporary basis, will also take the examinations

Pack Ready For Pacific Tigers

UNIVERSITY OF NEVADA Reno, Oct. 21—After trouncing the Chico Wildcats by a 27 to 0 tally, the University of Nevada Wolf Pack has been getting in trim this week to meet the Tigers of the College of Pacific on Mackay Field, October 23.

Last Saturday, the Wolves opened their 1937 season of razzle dazzle football against the Wildcats, tossing five laterals off of a forward pass to pay dirt.

Injuries which have kept four veterans on the sidelines for the Chico contest have healed and the Wolves will be in first class shape for the Homecoming tilt.

Last year the Tigers beat the Wolves 25 to 0, but the Wolf Pack is favored to get their pelt this year, although the game is due to be a close one.

Conditions are almost as badly unsettled now as if the nations had just emerged from an international peace conference.—Ohio State Journal.

QUESTION: When should a roast be salted—before placing it in the oven or after?

ANSWER: Roasts are usually salted at the beginning of the roasting period. When broiling meats, however, each side is salted after it is browned because salting tends to retard the browning of meats. This problem is minimized with roasts because they are in the oven long enough to assure browning. The Hotpoint way of roasting meats—starting them to roast in the cold electric oven—means one simple step from start to finish.

QUESTION: What can one do with boiled icing that becomes too hard to spread on a cake?

ANSWER: Add sufficient boiling water, a few drops at a time, to bring the icing back to spreading consistency.

QUESTION: How can one make a devil's food cake red without the use of too much soda?

ANSWER: Use a good recipe which calls for about 1 teaspoon of soda. Let the cake batter stand in the pans 10 to 15 minutes before placing it in the oven. Then after the cake is baked, let it stand 1 or 2 hours before cutting.

QUESTION: How is it possible to fry a large quantity of bacon and eggs at one time?

ANSWER: It is difficult to find a large enough frying pan to hold enough bacon and eggs (frying the eggs after the bacon) for a good-sized, hungry family. There is a new griddle, however, which forms a portion of the broiler pan of the new Hotpoint electric range, which serves as a large efficient frying surface when used on the hi-speed Calrod unit. Over one-half pound of bacon can be fried at one time and the griddle is large enough to accommodate 7 to 8 eggs. The bacon is fried on HIGH heat and the eggs on the stored-up OFF heat.

QUESTION: How can one "rejuvenate" curdled mayonnaise?

ANSWER: Place 1 or 2 tablespoons of evaporated milk in a bowl and very slowly add the curdled mayonnaise, beating constantly with a rotary beater.

SALT LAKERS VISIT HERE

Mr. and Mrs. John Walsh of Salt Lake City were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Bracken Thursday. While here they visited the Dam for the first time.

Many foreign nations will erect their own buildings at the 1939 Golden Gate International Exposition.

Route In Honor Of Will Rogers

The annual convention of the Will Rogers Highway Association will be held in Amarillo, Texas, November 22, according to word received by Secretary Oliver Goerman of the Chamber of Commerce.

Because of the importance to Las Vegas of completion of this route, it is hoped that a delegation from this city will attend the convention and lend their encouragement to the enterprise.

AN AARON BURR TRICK

In New York is the 71-story building of the Bank of Manhattan company an institution whose history goes back almost to the foundation of the government. It is recalled by a recent writer that the institution resulted from the shrewd trick of a lawyer, who was none other than the notorious Aaron Burr.

At the time the bank was projected the group behind it were "in bad" politically and hence unable to obtain a bank charter. They organized a water company instead, but in drawing the charter Burr added a clause permitting the company to engage also "in other necessary business." The other business was construed to include banking and it has been carried on ever since.

The structure in Wall street adjoins the lot formerly occupied by Federal hall, the first national capitol, where Washington took the oath of office as president. That tract is now the site of the sub-treasury.

If Aaron Burr and his associates could look back upon the scene today they would marvel at the development which has resulted from their clever scheme for obtaining a bank charter.

Treasure Island, site of the 1939 World's Fair at San Francisco, is the largest man-made island in the world.

TESTED RECIPE

By Frances Lee Barton

GROWING bodies need after-school snacks for that extra store of energy to be used up at play. Full of healthful energy and equally tempting to young and old are Toasted Coconut Bread-strips. Have a plate of them ready with tall glasses of milk for the youngsters when they burst into the kitchen after school. Twinkling eyes and muffled cries of delight from munching faces will assure you that with a little thought and care the process of packing food energy into vital young bodies is a happy duty.

Toasted Coconut Bread-strips

5 slices white bread, 1/2-inch thick; 1/2 cup sweetened condensed milk; 1 1/4 cup moist, sweetened coconut.

Cut slices of bread in 3 x 1-inch strips. Dip each strip in milk and drain slightly; then dip in coconut, covering all sides well. Bake in moderate oven (375° F.) 10 to 12 minutes, or until golden brown. Serve hot. Makes 20 strips.

THREATENING THE COURT

News dispatches of October 4, commenting on the reconvening of the supreme court, said: "As the court meets, it is the growing conviction in Washington that the . . . attempt to enlarge the court will be held in abeyance until the first judgments of the new term indicate the trend of its constitutional interpretations."

In other words if the court bows to dictation it will be unmolested; if it declares congressional acts unconstitutional it will be disciplined.

Many patriotic citizens of the United States never dreamed they would live to see the day when political factions would openly seek to sway the opinions of our highest tribunal by propaganda insinuations and actual threats.

Planned for Comfort

The well-designed fireplace in this architect-designed home adds a decided coziness and homey touch to this comfortable living room in a Bronxville, N. Y., home. Homes such as this may be financed under the Insured Mortgage System of the Federal Housing Administration. Amortization of the principal, taxes, interest, service charge, mortgage-insurance premium are all included in the monthly rent-like payments under this plan.
