

Paul Jones Host At Thanksgiving

Paul Jones, following his usual custom, was host to 150 children and 50 adults at dinner on Thanksgiving Day at Eagles hall. A musical program added to the pleasure of the occasion. This dinner for these less fortunate people was made possible by the generous cooperation of our local merchants and other citizens.

AUTOMOBILE EXPENDITURE SECOND ONLY TO FOOD

With the single exception of food, most Pacific coast families spend more on their automobiles than for any other item in the budget, according to statistics of the United States Department of Agriculture.

Figures received by the Automobile Club of Southern California revealed that 88 per cent of families earning $750 a year or more own automobiles.

In the very lowest income groups the automobile ranks fourth in the budget behind food, housing and clothing, but as soon as the family attains the $1000-$1500 income bracket the automobile takes second place on the budget. The survey was conducted in 24 Pacific coast towns.

When Ships Pass

ABOARD the "Santa Lucia" an A.B. raises a code flag as the Grace Line ship passes a north-bound vessel. Signalling at sea is done by flags and lights. An international agreement in 1901 standardized the code flags at nineteen square flags, two swallow-tail flags, six pennants, and an answering pennant. These represent the letters of the alphabet, are shown singly, or by twos, threes, or fours and stand for complete messages, a sentence, phrase, or word; each combination means the same in all languages.

TESTED RECIPE

By Frances Lee Barton

WHEN chill winds blow and the family are roaring hungry for their dinner, it's a thoroughly sound idea to build your dinner around a plate of good, substantial soup. One of the best soups for this purpose is bean soup, which is savoury and has plenty of body.

A generous dish of cole slaw, some hot muffins and the family's favorite dessert—and there is your dinner.

This bean soup is thickened to the king's taste with a small quantity of quick-cooking tapioca.

Delicious Bean Soup

3 tablespoons quick-cooking tapioca; 1 teaspoon salt; dash of cayenne; 1/2 small onion; 2 cups bean pulp; 3 1/2 cups milk; 1 tablespoon butter; 2 strips broiled bacon, diced; bacon drippings; 1 tablespoon minced parsley.

Combine tapioca, salt, cayenne, onion, bean pulp, and milk in top of double boiler. Place over rapidly boiling water and heat until scalded (allow 5 to 7 minutes after water resumes boiling); then cook 5 minutes, stirring frequently. Add butter, bacon, drippings, and parsley. Remove onion before serving. Serves 4 to 6.

Note: Bean pulp may be prepared from cooked fresh or dried beans or baked beans.
