MIXING IN WAR ZONES

Japan sinks a United States gunboat and is properly reproved by the heads of our government. Apologies have followed.

As the war in the Orient has proceeded our American interests have become involved, our citizens over there have been endangered—killed.

Neutrals are always innocents—and innocents always get in the way of dangers. It was such a combination of circumstances that created "accidents" that were followed by insults that drew us into the World War. We were prejudiced, one-sided then, just as we are now, with a lot of our nationals running around with chips on their shoulders. Finally the Germans began knocking them off.

Let us hope for better luck in this mess of foreign wars, in which the profit-making advantages have been seized upon by many of our countrymen.

We can't afford a war to help the scrap-iron merchants, or anybody else, and so "my impression as I look over the situation at close range here in Washington," writes correspondent J. E. Jones to this paper, "is that everybody should curb his, or her feelings for, or against, Japanese and Chinamen, wear American shirts and keep them on."
