

To Investigate Real Estate Tax

A national conference on real estate taxation in which a number of business and farm groups are expected to participate will be held in Chicago April 6, at the call of the committee on real estate taxation of the National Association of Real Estate Board, according to an announcement made today by Joseph W. Catharine, Brooklyn, president of the Association.

Former Governor Myers T. Cooper of Ohio, president of the Cincinnati Real Estate Board, chairman of the committee, has called the conference to discuss action to be taken during the current year to the end that substantial progress be made in readjustment of the real estate tax situation.

National groups who have been invited to take part include the American Farm Bureau Federation,
