

Rambler Writes of Death Valley

(By Death Valley Rambler)
DEATH VALLEY JUNCTION, Mar. 1, 1938.—Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Mauer, chef and head-waitress, respectively at Hotel Amargosa, accompanied by Mrs. Agnes Grimes, spent the day last Tuesday in Las Vegas shopping.

Messrs. Hugh Hayne, Johnnie Long and Bill Walsh, made the trip in to San Bernardino, over the past weekend. They left the Junction after lunch last Saturday, returning late Sunday night. All are residents of, and have families living in the gate city, and all are employed by, or connected with service on the T & T railroad. Mr. Long is express messenger, while Messrs. Haynes and Walsh are employed in the car shops here.

WEDDING BELLS—AGAIN

The RAMBLER has been rambling about considerably of late and has neglected to report the weddings of two popular Death Valley Junction couples recently.

One was that of Frank Schneehagen and Miss Marie Isaacs which occurred on Monday, Feb. 14 at Goldfield, Nevada. The ceremony was performed by Justice Murphy, after which a wedding dinner was served the participants and friends by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Labbe, at their home in Goldfield. The Labbes are old friends of the bride, and former residents of Death Valley Junction. The bride was attended by her father, while the groom was accompanied by Knute Hedlund, of Hotel Amargosa, who acted as best man. Later in the day the wedding party motored back to Death Valley Junction, where the newly-weds are now at home to their friends. A reception was held for the couple in Corkhill Hall Tuesday night. Mr. Schneehagen is a chef and as such has been employed in various hotels in and around Death Valley for several years past. He is now serving as second chef at Amargosa. Mrs. Schneehagen is the only daughter of Mr. Bernard Isaacs, and has resided with her father on their ranch 8 miles east of Death Valley Junction for several years past. She is a graduate of San Francisco high school. She has gone through life motherless, her mother having died a couple of weeks following her birth.

The other popular wedding, which the Rambler neglected to report, was that of Mr. Jack DeArman, cashier for the Borax Co., in their offices here, and Miss Bernece Sjurson, which occurred on Jan 4, last. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Ford Gilbert, pastor of the

Famed Author Writes Script

Adapted from a story by Frederick Hazlitt Brennan, famous writer of magazine fiction, Paramount's "The Big Broadcast of 1938," which opens Sunday at El Portal Theater, boasts every element which the most critical motion picture fan could ask for.

Enacted by a cast of film and radio favorites including W. C. Fields, Martha Raye, Dorothy Lamour, Shirley Ross, Ben Blue, Bob Hope, Lynn Overman, Leif Erikson, Grace Bradley and Tito Guizar, with specialty routines by Mme Kirsten Flagstad of the Metropolitan Opera and Shep Fields and his Rippling Rhythm Orchestra, "The Big Broadcast of 1938" is a story of as dim-witted a collection of zanies as ever sailed the high seas.

The action takes place aboard a transatlantic liner out after a new record, with the ship's entertainment in charge of a much-married master-of-ceremonies who finds all three of his ex-wives and his fourth love on board.

Methodist church in Las Vegas.

DeArman came here from Los Angeles several months ago, but is originally from Texas. Mrs. DeArman, while coming from Los Angeles, was reared in So. Dakota. These newly-weds are at home in Cottage 3133, Bungalow Village, South Tonopah Avenue.

Brilliant comedy sequences and the tender romance are woven around the seven new song hits featured in the film: "Thanks for the Memory," "The Waltz Lives On," "You Took the Words Right Out of My Heart," "This Little Ripple Had Rhythm," "Mama, That Moon Is Here Again," "Don't Tell a Secret to a Rose" and "Sawing a Woman in Half."

"The Big Broadcast of 1938" was directed by Mitchell Leison.
