Fr. Lambe Talks Of St. Patrick

Leo A. McNamee, program chairman for the day, gave the St. Patrick's Day program at Thursday's meeting of Las Vegas Rotary club. Stanley Arnott was first on the program, playing a group of Irish melodies on the piano.

Rev. Fr. Lambe, was introduced as the speaker of the day. He gave a most eloquent and interesting talk on the legends, stories and history of the Irish people, with particular attention to the life of St. Patrick and the introduction of Christianity into Ireland. The talk was enlivened by many anecdotes illustrating the humor and pathos of the people of Ireland, and of their century long fight for political freedom.

Bill Ferron was named program chairman for the next meeting and Cy Wengert designated to give five minutes of Rotary education as part of the program.

President Frank Gusewelle announced the "On to San Francisco" committee as Fred O'Donnell, Walter Bond, Tom Connelly and Otto Underhill.

Noble Glutton

Audubon's caracara, also known as the Mexican eagle, is found in the United States only in the most southern portions, the Texas-Mexico border and Florida. It is the size of a large hawk, feeds on carrion, and makes the vultures stand aside. A caracara will sometimes eat so much that it cannot fly. Egg collectors have been a menace to this interesting bird, which is protected by state laws. Wildlife Week accents the importance of all wildlife, including nature's scavengers.
