Cost of the Towers of the Sun at the 1939 World's Fair of the West, central spire rising 400 feet over Treasure Island, will be over $1200 for each day it is viewed. The Exposition will run 288 days and the tower will cost $350,000 to build.

Reobligation of Kentucky Masons

Dr. T. W. Pennington, Grand Master of the Grand Lodge of Kentucky has issued an edict to the subordinate Lodges, calling them together on April 11, 1938 for "Reobligation." This will be the third ceremony of this nature in Kentucky Freemasonry, and the following program has been suggested for the use of the various Lodges:

Opening of local Lodge. (Several Lodges may have joint meetings if the Craft receives proper notice of the meeting.) Reading of Proclamation of Grand Master. Prayer by Chaplain. Doxology or other appropriate selection of music. Obligation of Fellow Craft. Obligation of Master Mason. (Sacred Music between each obligation, if desired.) Prayer of dedication and for continued Masonic Service of Past Grand Master, Hugh Moore, who was originator of Reobligation Ceremony in Kentucky. Song—"Blest Be the Tie That Binds" in honor of Past Grand Master I. B. Ross. Closing of Lodge.

Land Planning

PROTECT RESIDENTIAL LOTS AGAINST NON-CONFORMING USES

The Land Planning Section of the Federal Housing Administration believes that the appearance of every building site is improved when the sites face similar sites across the street. If there is uncertainty as to what use will be made of adjoining property, lots should be arranged in a subdivision so that they will not be seriously affected by the use of adjacent land.
