Bishop Jenkins Planning Synod

The Rt. Rev. Thomas Jenkins of Reno, Bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Nevada, met Tuesday evening with his local committee and made further plans for entertaining the Synod of the Pacific Province of the United States in this city, May 9, 10, 11 and 12.

Those taking part in the meeting with Bishop Jenkins were Fr. J. H. Terry, Mrs. Guy Edwards and Mr. and Mrs. Knickerbocker of Boulder City; Mrs. Elizabeth Downing, Mrs. Murray Dickinson, Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Crozier, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Hansen and Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Squires, and K. O. Knudson, of Las Vegas.

Additions to the personnel of some of the working committees were made and partial reports were received.

Bishop Jenkins stated that the coming Synod will be probably the greatest religious convention ever held within the state.

The Pacific Province includes the states of California, Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Utah, Arizona and Nevada; the Hawaiian Islands and the Philippines and the Territory of Alaska.

WITH the arrival of these first soft, spring days we all doff our winter garments with a sigh of relief. And in the kitchen the presiding genius of menus, deciding that springtime has arrived in the culinary department, will make a springtime pie. Here is a pie which is a welcome change from the more substantial pies of winter—grateful to the palate in its lightness, but with sufficient nourishment to supply plenty of vim and vigor for all springtime activities.

Coconut Transparent Pie

1/2 cup butter; 1 teaspoon grated orange or lemon rind; 1 cup sugar; 1/4 teaspoon salt; 5 egg yolks; 1 baked 9-inch pie shell; 2 cups shredded coconut.

3 egg whites; 6 tablespoons sugar. Cream butter with rind; add sugar gradually, creaming until light and fluffy. Add salt and egg yolks, and beat very thoroughly (about 10 minutes). Turn into pie shell, sprinkle with 1 cup coconut, and bake in slow oven (300° F.) 1 hour. Beat egg whites until foamy throughout. Add sugar, 2 tablespoons at a time, beating after each addition until sugar is blended. Then continue beating until mixture will stand in peaks. Pile lightly on filling. Sprinkle with remaining 1 cup coconut. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 15 minutes, or until delicately browned.

Preparations for Religious Life

For half a century the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, founded by D. L. Moody in 1886, has provided instruction and training without cost of tuition to earnest minded young men and women who desire either to be better informed workers in home churches or to devote their lives to full-time Christian service in some specialized field. Ministers, evangelists, missionaries on home and foreign fields, Christian education directors, gospel song directors for churches and Sunday Schools, and many other types of workers have received their training at this school. More than 2,000 students were enrolled in the Day and Evening schools during the past year. Moody-trained missionaries numbering above 1,400 are now laboring under different church boards in some seventy countries.

The Bible ranks first in all Institute courses, and around it are gathered such subjects as Sunday School Administration, Gospel Music, Public Speaking, Home Economics, Public Speaking, Home Economics, Apologetics, Greek Hebrew, and medical subjects for missionary

Vegas Invited To Arizona Meet

The Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce has been invited to meet with the Civic Clubs of Southern Utah at Phoenix, Arizona on the occasion of their April meeting, the date of which has not yet been fixed.

According to Oliver Goerman, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, a group of Las Vegas people will attend. The occasion affords a wonderful opportunity to publicize the Las Vegas Hellsdorado-Rodeo, and at the same time create much publicity for the benefit of tourist travel into this area.

A caravan into Arizona by Chamber of Commerce members has been contemplated for a long time to promote more friendly relations with our neighbors, and to route more direct travel between the east and Los Angeles via Kingman, Boulder Dam and Las Vegas.

It is hoped that a large delegation will sign up for the trip.

TO CHICAGO

Miss Frances McNamee will leave Monday for a trip to Chicago.
