

In The WEEK'S NEWS

DEAN GOES TO CUBS FOR THREE PLAYERS AND $185,000—Curt Davis, Dizzy Dean, Tucker Stainback and Clyde Shoun (left to right) as the group met following the announcement of the trade with St. Louis Cardinals.

GOOD WRITING MEETS GOOD FORTUNE—What better place than a circus to celebrate when you've just won $1,000 as first of the daily prize winners in the current Camay "$1,000 A Day" contest? So here is Miss Edith Koerner of Patchogue, N. Y., at Madison Square Garden patting a Ringling Brothers elephant for more good fortune. Contest details are heard daily from coast to coast over the "Pepper Young's Family" radio program.

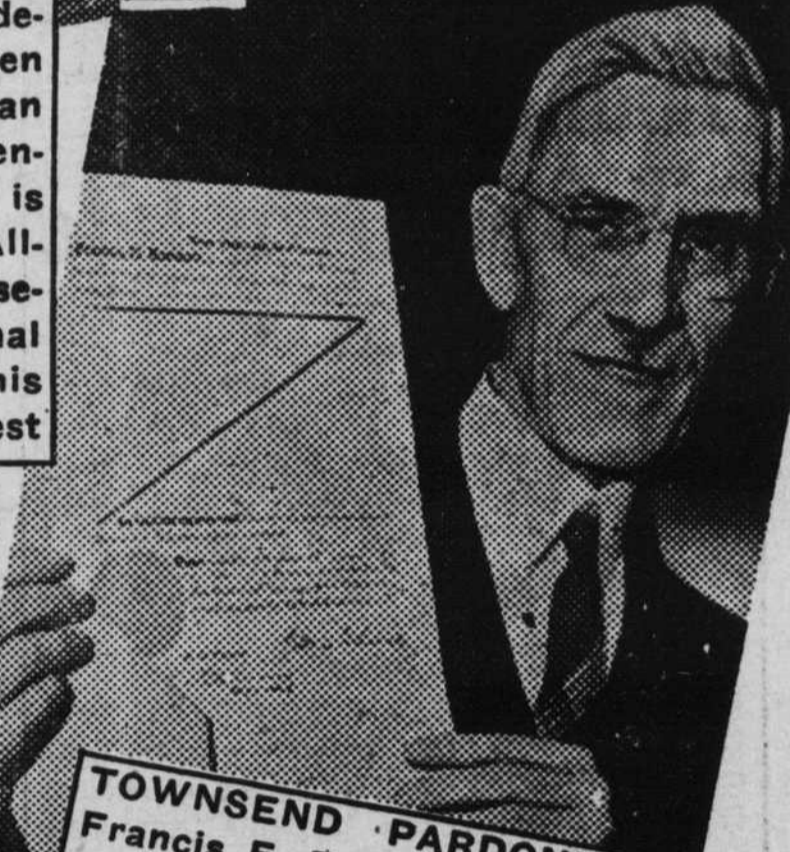

BUILT TO TAKE IT—Safety demands the very best equipment when going into the dangerous Belgian Congo for an eighteen months adventure. Commander Attilio Gatti is shown inspecting the Goodyear All-Weather Truck Tires which he selected for use on his International Trucks and Jungle Yachts during his perilous expedition into darkest Africa.

UP AND ABOUT AGAIN—General John J. Pershing (left) poses with his physician, Dr. Davidson, just before they left Tucson, Arizona for New York to attend the wedding of the General's son Warren to Muriel Bache Richards.

FORMAL SUIT—For formal wear, Irene Dunne models this attractive bolero ensemble of black wool crepe with shimmering sequin blouse. The belted skirt is gored for fullness and the glittering high necked tuck-in blouse is of blue crepe with blue and gold sequins.

TOWNSEND PARDONED—Dr. Francis E. Townsend, old-age pension planner, leaving the United States Marshal's office with the presidential pardon he received instead of the 30-day jail term he faced for contempt of the House of Representatives.

Junior Red Cross In San Francisco

SAN FRANCISCO, April 28—Indian students from the Carson Agency at Stewart, Nevada, and the Round Valley Agency at Covelo, California, will join an Eskimo lad from Nome, Alaska, and all participate with Junior Red Cross delegates from Puerto Rico and practically every State in the Union when the Junior Red Cross convention opens in San Francisco, Monday, May 2, simultaneously with the Senior Red Cross convention.

At the opening general session Monday morning, 750 girls from the Girls High School, San Francisco, all dressed in white, following a processional to the platform, will form a Red Cross flag. The girls will sing two Junior Red Cross songs. Music will be by the 30th infantry band. The spokesman for all Juniors at this first joint session with the senior delegates will be Miss Ruth Ellis, an honor student from Stockton, California.

The Junior delegates, numbering 1,000 and more, will hold their own conventions in Polk and Larkin Halls. William Lane, of Palo Alto, will be temporary chairman of the Senior High School section. Jack Fuery, of Berkeley, will be chairman of the Junior High School section.

Goodwill among the Youth of all nations will be emphasized in International Night, Tuesday, May 3. A group of 14 Indian students, directed by Miss Nellie Shaw, will motor from Stewart, Nevada, to participate. Clinton Gray, of Nome, Alaska, will represent the far north. Jorge Alberto Lanza is coming from Puerto Rico.

Ten nationality groups, in native costumes, are to demonstrate folk dances. They will be directed by Miss Hester Proctor. Participation of the local national groups was arranged by Miss Josephine D. Randall, superintendent of the San Francisco Recreation Commission.

Miss Rae Hall of Tracy, California is another local speaker at Monday's session. Her topic is "Cultivating Wholesome Attitudes Toward World Problems."

Honors also go to Richard Brooks of Bartlett, Tennessee, president of the Memphis and Shelby County Junior Red Cross Council. He has been chosen to speak for the Juniors of the United States at the senior convention dinner at the Palace Hotel, Tuesday evening, May 3.

Junior spokesmen will broadcast goodwill messages in a world-wide radio program to be released by the National Broadcasting Company (2 to 2:30 p.m.) Wednesday May, 4, over KGO and the Blue Network. Spencer Petersen of Ogden, Utah, and Helma Bailey, of Woodland, California, will speak from San Francisco. Other messages will be released from New York.

The Junior Red Cross groups will have their dinner dance in the Palace Hotel Palm Court, Monday night May 2. They will be guests of the San Francisco Chapter and the Bay Area Convention during a cruise on San Francisco Bay, Wednesday afternoon, May 4.

PERHAPS THAT'S IT

Movies caused all this trouble. Orientals lost their awe of the white man when they saw him bossed by women.

MOUTHFUL

French publicist believes the democratic nations will be closer in the next war. But not any closer than 3,000 miles, if we retain our good sense.

NO WAY TO END WAR

The war to end wars only bred the possibilities of larger and worse wars. A nation which is too strong to be attacked carries within its own borders the best surety of peace.

EXTRA

Remember, please—when you take a Smith Brothers Cough Drop (Two kinds—Black or Menthol—5¢), you get an extra benefit:—
Smith Bros. Cough Drops are the only drops containing VITAMIN A
This is the vitamin that raises the resistance of the mucous membranes of the nose and throat to cold and cough infections.