

LAS VEGAS WELCOMES NOBLES OF MYSTIC SHRINE

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY
RENO, NEVADA

LAS VEGAS AGE

SOUTHERN NEVADA'S LEADING NEWSPAPER

VOL. XXXIV.

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, FRIDAY, JUNE 3, 1938

NUMBER 31

WELCOME

SHRINERS

Shriners Get Key To Nevada

BAND CONCERT BY CRACK ALADDIN TEMPLE NOBLES FEATURE SATURDAY NITE

Nobles of the Mystic Shrine, en-route to the Shrine Convention in Los Angeles, will "take over" Las Vegas and Boulder City today and tomorrow.

Special trains will begin arriving in Las Vegas tomorrow morning at 7 o'clock. The nobles will be taken to Boulder City where they will be shown the dam, including a boat trip on Lake Mead.

One of the features of the Las Vegas visit, will be a band concert by the crack Aladdin Shrine band, from Columbus, Ohio. The concert will be given in the Union Pacific park in the evening. All Shrine units will stay in Las Vegas for several hours.

The first contingent of Shriners arrived on train 21 yesterday and were taken to Boulder City by bus, returning to Las Vegas in the evening in time to leave on train 7 for Los Angeles.

Tonight on train 7 units from Hartford, Conn., Bridgeport, Conn. Springfield, Mass., and Albany, N. Y. will arrive. This contingent will stay over night at the Sal Sagev hotel and be taken to the Dam Saturday morning.

Saturday morning at 7 will see the arrival of two special trains bearing nobles from Aladdin Temple, Columbus, Ohio. These special trains will go directly to Boulder City, returning to Las Vegas at 3 in the afternoon. The trains will depart for Los Angeles at 11 p.m.

Saturday trains 5 and 21 will bring in special cars with shriners from Boumi Temple, Baltimore, Md., Zenobia Temple, Toledo, Ohio, Rajah Temple, Reading, Pa., Lulu Temple Philadelphia, Pa.

At 2:30 Saturday afternoon a special train will arrive from Omaha, Nebraska with nobles from Tangier Temple. This train will re-

City Audit To Start Monday

An audit of the city books starting June 6th for the present administration was approved by the city board and George H. Wood, certified public accountant of Pasadena, California, was appointed to do the work. Charles R. Hadley Company of Los Angeles highly recommended Wood as being capable of handling the work having had 22 years of governmental experience.

A contract was awarded to Wood and two assistants. Wood is to receive $25.00 a day while his two assistants receive $15.00.

Memorial Day Services Held

Memorial Day was observed by the ex-service men and the auxiliaries with a parade followed by services at the Woodlawn Cemetery. The Spanish War Veterans, Veterans of Foreign Wars and American Legion and Auxiliaries of each organization, fraternal and civic organizations participated in the parade. Bishop Bryan L. Bunker, Chaplain of the American Legion made an address. Graves of the war veterans and their families were decorated. The War Mothers are as follows: Mesdames Mamie Roschl, Roxena Smith, R. Parker, Marion Cahlan, Jennie Lee and L. A. Rockwell.

turn to Las Vegas at 8:45 in the evening and remain here two hours.

Sunday morning will see the arrival of a special train at 9 a. m. from Fort Wayne bearing nobles from Mispah Temple. This train is scheduled to return from the dam at 3 in the afternoon and remain here until 9:35 p.m.

Following the Ft. Wayne special will arrive a special from Dayton, Ohio. This train will return to Las Vegas at 6:00 p.m. and remain until 8 p.m.

Trains 7 and 21 on Sunday will also bring in large delegations from eastern cities.

Another special train will arrive about midnight Sunday from Saladdin Temple, Grand Rapids. About 8 p.m. the same evening a train will arrive from Montana Temples.

No definite time of the shrine band concert could be given at this time, except that it would follow the arrival of the train back from Boulder City.

All Las Vegas nobles are aiding in showing the visiting shriners a real time.

Lieutenant Governor Fred S. Alward

Alward Delivers Memorial Address

Lieutenant Governor Fred S. Alward returned Tuesday morning from the northern part of the state where on Memorial Day he addressed the soldiers at Hawthorne.

The same evening the Lieutenant Governor spoke at Mina.

Expect Many To Build Cabins

It is expected that many new cabins will be erected at Charleston Park since the FHA loans on cabins has been approved. So far there are 23 privately owned cabins located in this region and it is now believed that many more will grace the hills by those desiring to find a cooler spot at the end of the days toll.

PLANNING BOARD MEMBERS

M. M. Sweeney of the Pioneer Title and Insurance Company was elected as a member of the city planning board to replace the late O. W. Yates. The terms of A. C. Grant and J. P. King have expired and new members will be appointed at an early date by the city officials.

Former Nevada Judge Weds Here

Judge Cole L. Harwood, former Reno, Nevada, resident, and presiding judge in the Washoe County Court, now of Grange, California and Della Francis Bishop of Orange, California were married Friday evening by Judge Wm. E. Orr in his office. Miss Nila Kay and E. W. Cragin acting as witnesses. Judge Harwood's son Paul A. Harwood, a graduate of the University of Nevada is dean of men at the same school.

Merger of Bus Lines Is Denied

The Interstate Commerce Commission rejects the merger into one large transcontinental bus line between the Burlington Trailways, a subsidiary of the Burlington railroad and the Interstate Transit Lines, a subsidiary of the Union Pacific and the Northwestern railroads. J. Edward Davey, chief of section of finance, bureau of motor carriers, interstate commerce commission filed a report prohibiting this merger, stating that competition would be restrained.

88 Graduate From Our High School

Baccalaureate Services for the Senior class of the Las Vegas High School were held in the grammar school gymnasium on South Fourth street last Sunday at 8:00 P. M. Leonard W. Sledge, deputy state superintendent of public instruction talked to the student body on "Democracy and Education."

Festival march by Frank Mulack, High School orchestra directed by Eldon Larson; invocation, J. Harold Brinley; Mixed Chorus: (a) Send Forth Thy Spirit, by Schuetky; (b) Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones by Vigile et Sancti; directed by Lewis E. Rowe; Baccalaureate address: "Democracy and Education", Leonard W. Sledge; (a) Melodie, by Carroll Ely; (b) JeJan de Paris, Overture, by Brieldieu, High School orchestra; Mixed Chorus: (a) Carol of the Russian Children, by Harvey B. Gaul, (b) Pilgrim's Chorus from Tannhauser, by Wagner; benediction by the Rev. Ford Gilbert.

The following is a list of the
(Continued on Page 2)