Senator Pat McCarran is in town. You can always tell when one of our representatives from Washington is here from the number of job seekers, etc., who crowd the lobby of the Apache Hotel. The junior senator is very much here—and in no uncertain terms let it be known that he expects to be returned to the Senate next November. As a Republican newspaper we can't say much for Senator McCarran—except that we are proud of the record he has made in the senate.

We have with us also today Albert Hilliard, prominent Renoite, who will oppose McCarran for the senate. Hilliard says, "I am running for the United States Senate as a Democrat. Senator McCarran ran on the same platform. The difference between Senator McCarran and myself is—that I will continue to be a Democrat after election." Go to it boys.

We learn from up north that Governor Kirman WILL be a candidate to succeed himself. Mr. Kirman has made a fine record as an executive. Should Mr. Kirman run again, the field of possibilities will be narrowed down to probably Lieutenant Governor Fred Alward. Alward while making no statement lets it be known that he "expects to be a candidate for the governorship and will have a definite announcement to make shortly."

Locally, notwithstanding the fact that many of the politically wise insist that Marion Earl will be a candidate for district attorney, we are convinced that he will again seek election to his present justice job—which pays more than the governor of the state receives.

Hilliard Out To Oppose McCarran

Albert Hilliard, prominent Reno attorney is in Las Vegas where he has announced his candidacy for the United States Senate, opposing Senator Pat McCarran.

Mr. Hilliard expects to remain in Las Vegas for several days before returning to the north. He expects to return to Las Vegas within the next two weeks to start an active campaign.

the district attorney post. He is making a campaign and will have the support of the majority of Democrats.

Everyone wants to be sheriff. There is sure to be six or seven good and true Democrats out for the nomination. Joe Keate, former sheriff, is sure to get the Democratic nomination with a well split opposition.

We have one Republican office holder that will be hard to beat, and that is Dave Farnsworth, Recorder and Auditor. Dave tends to his business as a county official—and does a good job of it.

Nevada Property Figures In Deal

ELKO, Nev. — Properties owned in the Gold Circle district by the East Standard Mining Co., including the Sleeping Beauty, Queen, Bamburger and Macy mines, have been optioned by G. L. Buck and Percy Collins of San Andreas, Cal. Negotiations are also reported proceeding for the Warren holdings and extensive placer deposits.

Extensive bodies of low grade ore have been developed in the East Standard group and comprehensive churn drilling of the area is planned. Construction of a large mill is contemplated if prospecting discloses a satisfactory tonnage of commercial ore. Buck and Collins are reported to represent eastern capital.

California interests have taken an option on the Bauer, Ellis and Maden placers near the mouth of Midas Canyon in the upper section of Squaw valley. Prospecting with a churn drill is scheduled shortly. Preliminary sampling was satisfactory.

The Gold & Silver Circle Mines Co. is running its mill at capacity on material from the waste dump at the Elko Price mine. About 25-30 tons sampling $8 a ton, are reported available. The plant has a capacity of 75 tons.
