CHARLES WAKEFIELD CADMAN, A.S.C.A.P.

From Indian to Modern Music

COMPOSER, pianist, educator and lecturer on Indian music, Charles Wakefield Cadman, A.S.C.A.P., holds a distinguished place in the roster of American composers.

Johnstown, Pa., saw him first, descendent of a long line of Revolutionary War patriots. His music line descends from great-grandfather Wakefield, builder of the first pipe organ west of the Alleghenies. He was church organist in Pittsburgh, music critic of the Pittsburgh Dispatch, director of music at the Wolcott Conservatory in Denver and the University of Southern California. Educated almost entirely by Pittsburgh music teachers.

His interest in Indian music took him to the reservations at Omaha and Winnebago. Collaborates most frequently with Nelle Richmond Eberhart, A.S.C.A.P., with whom he composed "At Dawning," "From the Land of the Sky Blue Water," the grand opera "Shanewis" and many other works.

Performances by great symphony orchestras over large radio networks maintain his high standing in the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers (ASCAP), which licenses his compositions for public performance for profit. He is also a member of the National Institute of Arts and Letters, and Doctor of Music at University of Southern California and Wolcott Conservatory of Music, Denver. Now resides in San Diego, California. His latest orchestral work, "Dark Dancers of the Mardi Gras," with Cadman as pianist, was played twice by the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra, the Detroit Symphony Orchestra and the New York Philharmonic.

Cadman says, "Only one-fifth of all Indian thematic material is valuable in the hands of a composer, and is suitable for harmonic investment."

MIXED CHORES

Bing Crosby, besides being the star of Paramount's "Sing You Sinners" and a weekly radio program, is president of the Del Mar race-track, runs a horse-breeding farm and owns a music publishing business.

PERFECT PROPORTIONS

Mary Carlisle, leading lady in Paramount's "Touchdown, Army," eats only raw vegetables for luncheon. Thus, she says, she has kept her shoulders three inches wider than her hips — the perfect screen proportions.

Woman Writes About The Men

(Mason Valley News)

FOR MEN ONLY. This interesting article taken from the Jolly Journal, the official publication of the Women's Traffic Club of Greater New York has been submitted by Georgann LeBaron, a member of the club. By now I know that you ladies are reading this and I also know that you will agree with everything that follows — you inquisitive dears.

Men are what women marry. They have two feet, two hands and sometimes two wives, but never more than one collar and one idea at a time. Like Turkish cigarettes men are all made of the same material. The only difference is that some are better disguised than others.

Generally speaking, they may be divided into three classes, husbands, bachelors and widowers. An eligible bachelor is a man of obstinacy, entirely surrounded by suspicion. Husbands are of three varieties: prizes, surprises and consolation prizes.

Making a husband out of a man is one of the highest plastic arts known to civilization. It requires science, sculpture, and common sense, faith, hope and charity, especially charity.

It is a psychological marvel that a soft, fluffy, tender, violet-scented sweet thing like a woman should enjoy kissing a big awkward stubby-chinned tobacco and bayrum-scented thing like a man.

If you flatter a man it frightens him to death and if you don't you bore him to death. If you permit him to make love to you, he gets tired of you in the end and if you don't he gets tired of you in the beginning.

If you believe in everything you soon cease to interest him, and if you argue with him in everything you soon cease to charm him. If you believe all he tells you he thinks you are a fool, and if you don't he thinks you are a cynic.

If you wear gay colors and rouge and a startling hat, he hesitates to take you out, and if you wear a little brown toque, and a tailor-made he takes you out and stares all evening at a woman in gay colors, rouge and a statling hat.

If you join him in his gaities and approve him in his smoking, he swears you are driving him to the devil, and if you don't approve of smoking and urge him to give up his gaities, he vows you are driving him to the devil. If you are the clinging type, he doubts whether you have a brain, and if you are a modern advanced and independent woman, he doubts whether you have a heart. If you are silly he longs for a bright mate, and if you are brilliant and intellectual he longs for a playmate. If you are popular with the other men he is jealous, and if not, he hesitates to marry a wall flower. But with it all we still marry them — !!

VINTAGE IRON HORSES

Engines No. 11 and No. 18, which were built in 1870 and hauled more than $7,000,000 in gold from the famous Comstock Lode, will run again in Cecil B. DeMille's "Union Pacific," the Paramount producer-director having acquired them from the Virginia and Truckee railroad.

CHURCHES

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST

316 South Fourth Street, across from grammar school, is a branch of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, Boston, Massachusetts. Meets every Sunday at 11:00 a.m. and Wednesday at 8:00. Sunday School at 9:30.

Christian Science reading room 112 North Third street, open Monday, Wednesday and Saturday afternoons except holidays, from 1:15 p.m. until 4:15 p.m. Evenings, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday from 7 until 9 o'clock.

"SACRAMENT" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all churches of Christ, Scientist, Sunday, July 10, 1938.

The Golden Text is from I Corinthians 5:8, "Let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleaven bread of sincerity and truth."

The Lesson-Sermon includes the Bible passage, "For by one Spirit are we all baptised into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit." (I Cor. 12:13).

Also the correlative from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, "Through repentance, spiritual baptism, and regeneration, mortals put off their material beliefs and false individuality." (p. 242).

ILL-GOTTEN GAINS OFTEN RESULT BADLY

During a court hearing in an action for divorce and alimony by his wife at Bridgeport, Conn., Harold V. Harris admitted that the $72,000 he won in Irish Sweepstakes in 1935 was all gone, and he was $875 in debt.

After paying $10,000 for Federal taxes and $30,000 for his home, the rest went for trips, parties, and living expenses, he said.

THE HUMAN ELEMENTS

With safety glass, steel turret top bodies and Life Guard tubes, automobiles are now safer than drivers, according to Government safety engineers. Eventually, the experts hope they will be greatly aided in their fight to drastically curb America's high toll of dead and injured in traffic accidents, through the enactment of uniform traffic and compulsory inspection laws. They admit, however, that the human element remains the greatest highway safety hazard and that a campaign of continuous education is the ultimate cure for this hazard.

Safety engineers hail the advent of Life Guard safety tube probably the greatest recent contribution to highway safety. This new tire, introduced by President Paul W. Litchfield of the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company of Akron, Ohio, permit the driver to bring his car to a dead stop without swerving and accident in the event of a blowout or puncture. The new tube is actually two tubes, one of which retains air when there is a puncture or blowout for a sufficient length of time for the driver to bring the car under control without swerving.
