

ATTENTION: Prospectors, Miners

Personal qualifications and "lady luck" have generally determined success or failure. Knowledge and equipment are now the determining factors. Many years acquaintance with the desert regions of the southwest has confirmed my belief in Nature's bounty, and my faith in the men who ably cope with the hazards of prospecting. Also, I have become convinced of the necessity for technical and financial assistance in the development of a prospect. I am interested in contacting an owner who has a mineral showing worthy of development. Interview by appointment only. WRITE particulars.

P. S. Many old timers are gone; those who remain will not forget the corner store and the "friend of man" who ran it. The man who worked early and late, yet had time for those in need. Often he was imposed upon. He never turned a deaf ear.

"The heart that beat within his shirt Assayed more than good pay-dirt."

Not smiled upon by fortune he is still concerned with the welfare of his fellow man. This community is lucky to have a man like this in public office. KEEP HIM ON THE JOB. Give him the biggest vote that any Sheriff ever had. Vote for Gene Ward.

Spacious—Inexpensive

The two-story and basement house located in Omaha, Nebr., as shown in the above picture, was financed by a $4,000 mortgage insured by the Federal Housing Administration. The FHA appraised the property at $5,000.

By taking full advantage of the topography of the site, it was possible to provide a basement and garage without adding appreciably to the cost of construction. A feature of the house is the fireplace that serves as a focal point in the living room. Each room is provided with ample closet space.

Myrna Loy, Gable Play At El Portal

Thrills in the strenuous life of a newsreel cameraman, and romance between Clark Gable as the adventurer of the lens and Myrna Loy as a daring avatrix, come to the El Portal Theatre in "Too Hot To Handle," dramatic story of the love of two people whose lives are a constant quest for excitement. It teams the stars following their smashing success together in "Test Pilot."

Gable and Walter Pidgeon play rival newsreelmen covering fighting in the Orient. Constantly using trick and device to "scoop" each other, they clash when Miss Loy, as the avatrix, attempts a "mercy flight" with serum, and Gable, barred from the field, reaches it in an ambulance but wrecks her plane. The filming of the "Chinese Big Apple," and finally Miss Loy's dash into the South American wilds to find her lost aviator brother, with Gable following with his camera, are among sensational details, also Gable's filming of a blazing liner from a plane piloted for him by Miss Loy. A special company was sent to Dutch Guiana to film location scenes for the South American episode.

Jack Conway, who directed "Viva Villa!" "Libeled Lady," "Saratoga" and other hits, directed "Too Hot To Handle," which is based on a story by Len Hammond and on a screen play by Laurence Stallings, author of "The Big Parade" and "What Price Glory" and himself a veteran newsreel editor, and John Lee Mahin.

The cast includes Walter Connolly as the newsreel manager, Leo Carrillo as Gable's sound man, Johnny Hines, Virginia Weidler, Betty Ross Clarke, Willie Fung and Patsy O'Connor. Hundreds of Chinese play in the Oriental scenes in which Gable, under shot and shell, films the bombing of a village.

ALL lovers of oysters—and their name is legion—like to celebrate the opening of the oyster season with a good old fashioned oyster stew. But meal planners are sometimes hard put to it to know just what to serve with an oyster stew. The next time you're in that predicament plan to have Jellied Southern Cole Slaw. It's the best possible balance to the main dish, and will complete the meal perfectly.

Jellied Southern Cole Slaw
1 package lemon-flavored gelatin; 1 cup hot water; ½ cup canned pineapple juice; 2 tablespoons vinegar; ¼ teaspoon salt; 2½ cups finely shredded cabbage; ½ cup cream, whipped; 1 tablespoon diced pimiento.

Dissolve gelatin in hot water, add pineapple juice, 1 tablespoon vinegar, and ½ teaspoon salt. Chill. Season cabbage with remaining 1 tablespoon vinegar and ¼ teaspoon salt. When gelatin is slightly thickened, place in bowl of cracked ice or ice water and whip with rotary egg beater until fluffy and thick like whipped cream. Fold in whipped cream, cabbage, and pimiento. Turn into mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on crisp lettuce. Garnish with mayonnaise. Serves 6.

Local Painter In City Court

Dan Johndahl, local sign painter, was haled into the municipal court this week charged with erecting a sign in violation of the city ordinance.

The city ordinance requires that a permit must be secured before signs are erected within the city limits and Johndahl is alleged not to have complied with the law.
