

thereof not to exceed the sum of one thousand dollars. And any incidental costs for succeeding fiscal years shall be paid from the annual bounty appropriations, the same not to exceed the sum of one hundred dollars per fiscal year.

SECTION 5. For each fiscal year while this act shall be in effect, for the payment of bounties as provided in section 1 of this act, and other costs as provided in section 4 of this act, there is hereby appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury, of moneys not otherwise appropriated, the sum of twenty-five thousand ($25,000) dollars, and any residue of said sum remaining unexpended at the end of any fiscal year shall revert to the general fund in the state treasury.

SECTION 6. The State of Nevada shall enter into no agreement to cooperate with the federal government for the destruction and eradication of predatory animals, where salaries instead of bounties are paid, but may enter into such an agreement if the federal government shall accept the bounty system as hereinabove outlined and enacted, provided, that in case of such agreement the federal government's share of the cost shall equal or exceed that of the state, and the bounties shall be no less than hereinabove provided.

In the event of such an agreement no trophy less than the whole skin in proof of a claim for bounty, as provided in section 2 of this act, shall be accepted, and each skin shall be perforated or branded, as hereinabove provided, with the lettering and words "Bounty Paid—Nevada."

And it is hereby further provided that no American citizen shall be denied the right to participate in the earning and collecting of such bounties.

SECTION 7. Any previous act of the legislature pertaining to the destruction and eradication of predatory animals, or the trapping thereof, and that certain initiative law or act of the people adopted at the general election of November 6, 1934, entitled "An act providing for the payment of bounties for the destruction and eradication of predatory animals, prescribing the manner of payment, providing for cooperation with the federal government in such eradication by bounty payments, other matters relating thereto, and repealing all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith, are hereby repealed.—be approved?

PIONEER VEGAN

DIES IN SAN DIEGO

Word was received Monday afternoon by W. R. Bracken of the sudden death in San Diego of Frank M. Grace. He passed away while attending a railroad executive luncheon Monday noon.

Frank was a pioneer Las Vegan. A young man of unusual ability he superintended the construction and operation of the Las Vegas and Tonopah railroad.

He was an outstanding figure in the early life of this community. He was genial, kindly and possessed a rare understanding of people and problems. In 1906 he married Miss Marion Porter of Los Angeles. They lived for a short time at the old ranch and later built a home at the corner of Fremont and Fifth which was recently moved to make way for the Union Oil station.

When the L. V. & T. railroad was discontinued he and his family moved to their lemon grove near San Diego where they lived for several years. Later he was made assistant to the general manager of the San Diego and Arizona railroad, a position he occupied to the day of his death.

It was a beautiful way to go — no long illness, no agonizing farewells, just to fall asleep to awaken on another shore.

Besides his widow, he leaves three daughters, Helen, Lois and Francis and a little granddaughter. Final rites were conducted Wednesday.

THE MESQUITE CLUB

LIBRARY SECTION

The library section of the Mesquite club met Friday afternoon and enjoyed a pleasant and instructive session. Mrs. James Downs, Sr. is proving a splendid leader. Miss Lisne gave a most interesting account of the development of the printed page and the beginning of literature. Mrs. D. S. Farnsworth told of the life of Louis Adamic and reviewed his "Cradle of Life."

Adamic, who is a native of Jugoslavia, also wrote "My America" which every American should read.

Mrs. C. P. Squires told of her recent trip over C. B. Glasscock's "Golden Highway."

CHARLESTON OUTING

A party of ladies motored to Charleston Park Monday for a days outing. The air was crisp and invigorating and the foliage was gorgeous. A most delicious luncheon of fried chicken was served before an open fire by Mrs. Guffy. The afternoon was devoted to several rounds of contract. Those enjoying the occasion were Mesdames W. R. Bracken, Will Beckley, W. E. Ferron, C. P. Squires, Sam Lawson, Robert Griffith, Leo A. McNamee, James Cashman and Ruby White.

CHARLES BRYANT

DIES IN LAS VEGAS

Charles A. Bryant passed away Sunday after a short illness at his home south of town. On Thursday he came to Vegas seemingly in good health but on returning was taken with a bad kidney attack. In spite of the ministrations of doctor and nurse he passed into the beyond Sunday. During his long residence in Vegas he followed the building trade and lived for many years at the corner of sixth and Stewart streets where he and his wife cultivated beautiful flowers.

Later he moved to a ranch about six miles out. He leaves a wife, Katy, to mourn his passing. Funeral rites were conducted Wednesday at the Palm Funeral Home by Rev. Ford Gilbert of the Methodist church. Interrment was made at Woodlawn cemetery.

Mrs. Marion Cahlan, Mrs. Metta Riggs, Miss Copenhaver and Miss Newton have issued invitations for a luncheon at the Apache Lounge on Saturday, November 19.
