

NOTED AUTHOR

VISITS LAS VEGAS

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Glasscock of Laguna, California are in Las Vegas enroute to Death Valley. Mr. Glasscock is known for his delightful tales of the west. Especially do we like his stories of early Nevada.

"The Big Bonanza" which gives a vivid and authentic story of Virginia City and the Comstock Lode and "Gold in Them Hills" where in is depicted the early days of Tonopah, Goldfield and other camps which many in Las Vegas remember. His "Golden Highway" gives us the romance of the World's greatest gold rush beginning in 1849. In this narrative the camps of long ago are brought to life; the ghostly buildings and deserted streets teem with humanity. You can almost hear the creak of the windlass and the miners pick. Mr. Glasscock is collecting data on Death Valley which he hopes to publish at an early date.

ENTERTAINED AT BRIDGE

Mrs. Perle Brown entertained with a bridge party honoring her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Mahlon Brown Tuesday evening at her home on South Second street. Those asked to meet this charming young woman were Mesdames Fred Ferris, James Down, Jr., Alson Gibson, Vern Perry, George Zettler and the Misses Dalton Buck, Pauline Honrath, Jane Kramer, Mazie Martin, Frances McNamee, Florence Lee Jones and Neva Johnson.

"Rolling their own" as guests do at the Town House in Los Angeles; Bob Russell, proprietor of the Apache Hotel, ranch hostleries, delegates are pictured at

Order Your Christmas Cards Now

W. S. ELLIOTT DIES IN ELY

It is with regret that we chronicle the passing of W. S. (Ole) Elliott, of Ely, Nevada, the genial host of the Nevada hotel.

A native Nevadan, for years he followed the famous camps — first Alaska, then Tonopah, and Goldfield, then Ely. For years he ran the Northern hotel in Ely and for the past several years was resident manager and part owner of the Nevada hotel which he and his wife made, by their genial friendliness, a real community center or gathering place. Although he had been in poor health for some time he continued to carry on as usual. Friday evening he suffered a cerebral hemorrhage and passed away early Saturday morning. He leaves a wife, his constant companion, and one sister whose home is in the east. Funeral services were conducted Wednesday under the direction of the Elks.

ATTEND WEDDING

Mrs. Adam Kramer and her daughter, Jane, who attended the wedding of Miss Frances Kramer to Wheeler Doll in Santa Barbara last week, have returned home.

Order Your Christmas Cards Now

MINING CONGRESS

INVITED TO VEGAS

R. R. Russell, Lester Saunders and Bob Kaltenborn, clad in miners togs appeared before the American Mining Congress in session at the Ambassador with an invitation to hold the next session in Las Vegas, Nevada. Invitations were also received from Colorado Springs, Salt Lake City, Sacramento and San Francisco.

It was learned that the next convention city will be determined by mailed ballots at a meeting of directors to be held in Washington, D. C.

Mrs. S. P. Norvick and little son, Bruce Jay, of Los Angeles are house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Brick. Mrs. Novich is Mrs. Brick's niece.

Senator William G. McAdoo, and wife, were registered at hotel Amargosa Friday evening. They spent the day, Saturday, touring the Valley.

Mr. Harry Rosenberg, foreman of the T. & T. bridge construction crew, was quietly married last Saturday, October 22nd to Miss Audrey Stacko, of Los Angeles. The ceremony took place at Las Vegas.

DEVELOP NEVADA WITH

CARVILLE

(A Governor As Sound As The State In Which He Was Born)

- Constructive and Sound Administration
- Agricultural Advancement
- Reclamation of Land
- Valuable Mineral Resources Developed
- Irrigation Expansion
- Livestock Improvement
- Liberal Laws
- Economy of Government

ELECT

E. P. "TED" CARVILLE
 DEMOCRAT
GOVERNOR OF NEVADA

MILDRED BRAY
 (INCUMBENT)

Non-partisan Candidate for

State Superintendent of Public Instruction

Experienced Administrator and Educator of Proven Ability.
 (Political Advertisement)

