QUESTION NO. 2
Initiative Petition
Shall—An Act providing for the payment of bounties for the destruction and eradication of predatory animals, prescribing the manner of payment, providing for cooperation with the federal government in such eradication by bounty payments, making an annual appropriation for bounty payments and other purposes incidental thereto, other matters relating thereto; and repealing all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith.

To the Honorable Legislature and Governor of the State of Nevada:

We, the undersigned qualified electors of the State of Nevada, by virtue of and in accordance with section 3 of article XIX of the constitution of the State of Nevada, and an act of the legislature of the State of Nevada, entitled "An act prescribing the procedure to be followed in the presentation and adoption of acts initiated by the people," approved March 8, 1921, hereby propose by initiative petition the following measure, law or act; and we petition that it be enacted by the legislature of the State of Nevada at its next regular session and approved by the governor of the State of Nevada:

An Act providing for the payment of bounties for the destruction and eradication of predatory animals, prescribing the manner of payment, providing for cooperation with the federal government in such eradication by bounty payments, making an annual appropriation for bounty payments and other purposes incidental thereto, and repealing all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith.

The People of the State of Nevada do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. For the destruction and eradication of predatory animals within the State of Nevada, the state shall pay the following bounties: For each mountain lion and for each gray or timber wolf killed within the State of Nevada, fifty ($50) dollars; for each coyote and for each bobcat killed within the State of Nevada, two ($2) dollars; provided, that the payments for any one fiscal year shall not exceed the total sum of twenty-five thousand ($25,000) dollars, and when said sum shall have been so expended during such fiscal year, payments shall automatically cease until the first day of the next following fiscal year, when such payments shall be resumed.

SECTION 2. The claimant for any of the bounties enumerated in section 1 of this act must present to the county clerk of the county wherein such animal or animals were killed, the entire skin in one piece of each animal killed and the skin must include and have attached hereto in one piece the tip of the nose, ears, tail, and four feet, with toes and claws intact; provided, that where such animal has lost a foot, toes or claws the remaining portions of the foot shall be presented intact.

SECTION 3. Said county clerk shall administer an oath to the claimant for any such bounties, which oath shall be subscribed to by the signature of the claimant and shall contain the following particulars: That such animal or animals were killed within the State of Nevada and within the county where the claim is presented; that they were killed by the claimant in person; that they were truly of the species claimed; that they were wild animals and not whelped in captivity.

Should any claimant attempt to collect a bounty or bounties for an animal or animals not killed within the State of Nevada, or in the county where such claim is made, he shall be guilty of fraud, and upon conviction he shall serve not less than one year and not more than five years in the state prison.

Should he swear falsely under the oath required in this section, he shall be guilty of perjury, and upon conviction, he shall serve not less than one year nor more than five years in the state prison.

If the county clerk does not know the claimant personally or is in anywise in doubt as to the veracity or legality of the claim, he shall require additional and conclusive proof, such proof in no case to be in the nature of an affidavit based upon information and belief, but upon actual knowledge of one or more reputable witnesses who are residents and taxpayers of the county, upon oath before a court of record, and for any willful neglect or failure to enforce each and every provision of this section, said county clerk shall be guilty of a crime, the degree of such crime to depend upon the amount of money involved; if under fifty dollars he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by not more than one year in the county jail, and if fifty dollars or more he shall be guilty of a felony punishable by not less than one year nor more than five years in the state prison. For any loss sustained by the state through such failure or neglect he shall be liable to the state under his official bond.

Said county clerk shall count and examine such skins, and shall determine their species. He shall mark or brand each skin, in the forehead above the eyes with a machine or device as provided for in section 4 of this act, and shall return such marked or branded skins to the claimant as his property; provided, that in case of coyote pup skins or bobcat kitten skins, the mark or brand may occupy any part or the whole of such skin.

Said county clerk shall prepare a certification in triplicate of all the facts of each such transaction, and thereupon shall make oath before a court of record of the same, such oath to be a part of and attached to such certificate. One copy he shall forward to the state controller, one he shall deliver to the claimant and the third he shall file in his office as a part of the public records thereof.

Upon receipt of a duly sworn copy of such certification the state controller shall draw a warrant in favor of the claimant for the amount thereof upon the state treasury which shall pay the same in the manner that other claims against the state are paid.

SECTION 4. The state controller shall purchase and deliver to each county clerk in the State of Nevada one machine or device for perforating or branding said skins with the lettering and words "Bounty Paid—Nevada." If a perforating machine it shall make perforations that shall be plainly visible and legible, and if a branding device it shall be an electrical one attachable to an electric light socket, and shall burn the hair down to the skin so that it likewise may be plainly seen.

Said machines or devices, and any printing required from the state printing office pertaining to the administration of this act, and any other incidental costs shall be paid from the appropriation of bounty money for the first fiscal year of the operation of this act, the total
