

thereof not to exceed the sum of one thousand dollars. And any incidental costs for succeeding fiscal years shall be paid from the annual bounty appropriations, the same not to exceed the sum of one hundred dollars per fiscal year.

SECTION 5. For each fiscal year while this act shall be in effect, for the payment of bounties as provided in section 1 of this act, and other costs as provided in section 4 of this act, there is hereby appropriated from the general fund in the state treasury, of moneys not otherwise appropriated, the sum of twenty-five thousand ($25,000) dollars, and any residue of said sum remaining unexpended at the end of any fiscal year shall revert to the general fund in the state treasury.

SECTION 6. The State of Nevada shall enter into no agreement to cooperate with the federal government for the destruction and eradication of predatory animals, where salaries instead of bounties are paid, but may enter into such an agreement if the federal government shall accept the bounty system as hereinabove outlined and enacted, provided, that in case of such agreement the federal government's share of the cost shall equal or exceed that of the state, and the bounties shall be no less than hereinabove provided.

In the event of such an agreement no trophy less than the whole skin in proof of a claim for bounty, as provided in section 2 of this act, shall be accepted, and each skin shall be perforated or branded, as hereinabove provided, with the lettering and words "Bounty Paid—Nevada."

And it is hereby further provided that no American citizen shall be denied the right to participate in the earning and collecting of such bounties.

SECTION 7. Any previous act of the legislature pertaining to the destruction and eradication of predatory animals, or the trapping thereof, and that certain initiative law or act of the people adopted at the general election of November 6, 1934, entitled "An act providing for the payment of bounties for the destruction and eradication of predatory animals, prescribing the manner of payment, providing for cooperation with the federal government in such eradication by bounty payments, other matters relating thereto, and repealing all acts and parts of acts in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.—be approved?

Home-Eyes!

WINDOWS, because they are entering points for light, are really the eyes of the home and are the first part of the room to be seen by anyone entering. So they should always be well dressed and that is especially important to consider now since entertaining indoors will be the favorite pastime in homes for many months to come. As glamour spreaders, lace net curtains are tops. There are flocks of tempting new American designs, all light, open-weave lace patterns. And they're as practical for wear and for washing as they are pretty. Hang them alone, or combine them with plain or patterned draperies, and watch the entire home take on a new personality.

BUS OVERTURNS NEAR BEATTY

The group of entertainers who appeared in the floor show at the Republican rally Wednesday evening had a narrow escape from what might have been a serious accident, while enroute to the southern part of the state. The bus on which they were riding with the members of the orchestra hit a soft shoulder and turned over. Luckily no one was seriously injured.
