ENTERTAINING PAST MATRONS

The Past Matrons' club, of Southgate chapter, O. E. S., Las Vegas, is being entertained at dinner tonight by the members living in Boulder City.

DESSERT BRIDGE PARTY

The dessert bridge party given at the Mesquite clubhouse last Saturday by the new members proved a delightful affair.

Mrs. C. D. Breeze, Mrs. Mike Gordon, and Mrs. George Zetler received the keno prizes. The afternoon was devoted to contract and pan.

The hostesses included Mesdames Dean Bingham, Curtis Capelle, H. W. Crozier, Florence Davis Murray Dickinson, C. L. Gamble, Herman Gloystein, V. Gray Gubler, Charles De Armond, Bill Foster, and Frank Purdy.

BETA SIGMA PHI AT BOULDER CITY

The members of the Kappa chapter of the Beta Sigma Phi sorority accompanied Mrs. Susan Kearney of Reno, national field secretary to Boulder City last Friday evening. After dinner at the Boulder hotel, with the Boulder City pledges as honor guests, the Lambda chapter was instituted.

MRS. MARTIN ENTERTAINS

Mrs. R. W. Martin entertained her bridge club at luncheon Tuesday at her home on North Second street. Contract was enjoyed during the afternoon by Mesdames W. E. Ferron, W. N. Schuyler, J. T. Watters, Charles De Armond, R. R. Russell, Robert Griffith, C. P. Squires, and the hostess.

OLD-TIMERS ENTERTAIN

The "Old-Timers club" of the Union Pacific are entertaining with a dinner dance at the Silver cafe this evening.

Mrs. F. E. Mildren was hostess to the members of her "Pan" club on Wednesday.

Empey Divorce Suit Is Filed

Mrs. Margurite Empey is in Las Vegas, and last Tuesday filed suit for divorce from Guy Empey.

The defendant will be remembered as the author of "Over the Top," the best seller of the World war stories.

Mrs. Empey charges her husband with extreme mental cruelty and asks for the custody of their minor child.

The husband, in turn, says there was too much mother-in-law in their home.

This is the second time Mrs.

Empey has sued for divorce—the first, in 1934, being dismissed before the final decree was entered.

HEAVY-DUTY LINOLEUM DESIGNED FOR STORES

A decorative floor finish may be achieved by store owners modernizing their showrooms through use of the new heavy-duty linoleums designed especially for service in commercial structures.

The floor covering is available in countless designs and color schemes. Linoleum is easily kept clean and is quiet and comfortable underfoot.

The property improvement credit plan of the Federal Housing administration offers store owners and lessees an opportunity for obtaining funds for the purchase and installation of linoleum floor coverings. The money is advanced by private lending institutions qualified by FHA.

"MODERN WOMEN USING SEX LURES TO PREVENT WAR!" declares Joan Clair, noted beauty authority and president of the Clairol Company, just returned from a study of beauty and fashion abroad. She states that the colorful fashions, the new silhouettes and the brushed-up hair are the weapons European women are using to keep their men at home. "Certainly France won't start a war," says Miss Clair. "French women are so chic the men won't leave them to fight."

ONE MAN TEAM? No, but this will soon be a familiar sight to Mr. and Mrs. America as Autumn rolls around again. Many a quarterback soon may wish he had as many arms.

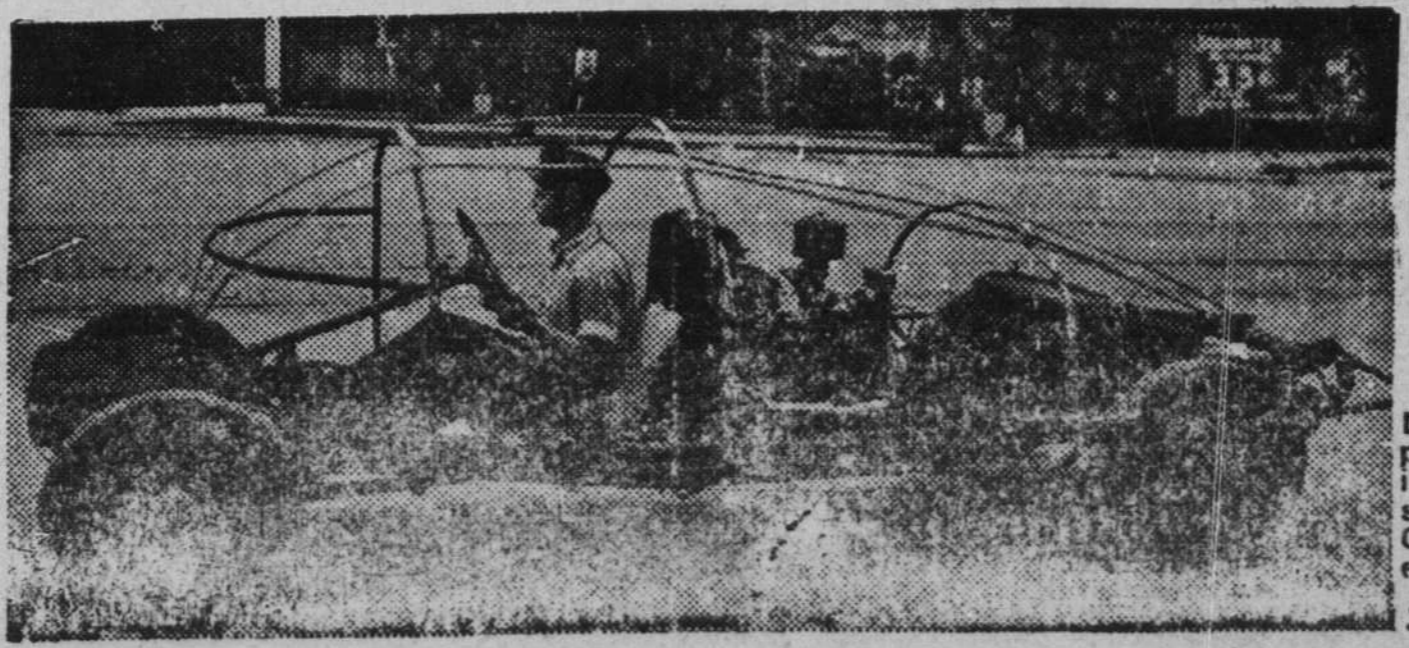

FRED ALLEN signs his name to the dotted line that insures millions of radio listeners another season of mirth and music. The popular comic of "Town Hall Tonight" occupies his usual Wednesday night spot on the NBC-Red Network.

KATE SMITH arrives on the job at the CBS Playhouse off Times Square for first rehearsal of her new Thursday night radio series over the Columbia Network.

TIME LOST AND FOUND!—Bonneville Salt Flats, Utah—John Cobb of London, England, who held the world speed record for a day, is shown inspecting the Gruen Curvex for the side of the wrist that was awarded him when he made the record speed of 350.20 miles per hour on the Salt Flats here. The following day he lost the record to another Englishman, Capt. George E. T. Eyston, but he keeps his new timer. With him is Gus P. Backman, Secretary of the Salt Lake City Chamber of Commerce who presented the watch.

DRIVERLESS AUTO? Well, Chicago police say it will be if Mylio Ozuk, its inventor, doesn't secure a license for it soon. The bug-like car is rated by Ozuk at 130 miles per hour and has eluded police doing better than 90 m.p.h.
