

LAS VEGAS AGE

SOUTHERN NEVADA'S LEADING NEWSPAPER

VOL. XXXIV.

LAS VEGAS, NEVADA, FRIDAY, DECEMBER 9, 1933

NUMBER 48

Fine Work For Needy Children

As is usual, the local P.-T. A. has a long list of good deeds to its credit for the past year.

Undernourished children claimed the attention of the organization, and 108 of these little unfortunates were served hot lunches. Organizations which contributed funds to make these hot lunches possible were: Elks lodge, which gave $25; Modern Woodmen, $15; and the Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church, $5.

The distribution of clothing is another project undertaken by the organization. This work is carried on in a room in the high school building, with groups of women from various organizations in charge. For the first two weeks in December the work is under the direction of Mrs. William Mendelsohn and a group from the Hebrew Circle.

At a recent meeting of the executive board of the organization one $5 tuberculosis bond was purchased and $5 contributed toward the White Christmas.

Thieves Loot Davison Home

While Mr. and Mrs. Earl Davison were in the East, their house in the southern part of town was robbed of valuable belongings. Entrance was gained through a rear window by breaking the glass.

The intruders evidently took their time and looked things over with an eye as to what should be taken and what should be left. Bedding, linens, men's clothing and groceries seemed to appeal to them.

The theft was discovered by little Ruth Ann Van Meter, who, while playing, noticed the front door of the Davison house was open, and the police were notified.

Callihan Master Of Vegas Lodge

At a meeting of the Las Vegas Masonic lodge last Monday evening the officers for the coming year were elected. Fred Callihan was made worshipful master, and the following named to assist him: L. A. Pritchard, senior warden; W. E. Fitzgerald, junior warden; Claude Haff, secretary; Ed Von Tobel, treasurer; Earl Davison, William B. Mundy, and Bud Barrett, trustees.

Carville Stops Over In Vegas

Gov.-Elect E. P. Carville arrived in Las Vegas Sunday evening on his way home from Los Angeles, where he attended the big football game Saturday afternoon.

Monday morning Governor Carville met the Notre Dame Boosters club when they arrived on the Union Pacific, and accompanied them on their tour of Boulder dam and Lake Mead.

Governor Carville is one of the alumni of Notre Dame and greatly enjoyed meeting some of his old associates in spite of the defeat of the team by U. S. C.

The governor-elect left for Reno Tuesday after conferring with some of his many friends regarding matters to come before the next legislature. He will be very busy the next several weeks arranging his private business preparatory to taking over the affairs of state on January 3.

Doctors Speak On Tuberculosis

Thursday evening two doctors prominent in public health work spoke before a P.-T. A. meeting in the grammar school building, to which the public had been invited to attend.

Dr. Fred T. Ford, regional consultant for the 11 western states in the United States public health service, and Dr. John Norton, of the Nevada state board of health, spoke on the control of tuberculosis in Nevada. Their talks were illustrated by motion pictures and slides. Musical numbers were presented by the Las Vegas High school glee club, who sang "I Love to Hear You Singing," by Wood, and the "Syncopated Lullaby," by Simms.

Catholic Women Will Entertain

The Las Vegas chapter of the National Council of Catholic Women will entertain with a dinner Monday evening at the Elks club. The guests will include the husbands of the members of the local chapter, the Boulder City chapter members and their husbands, and the members of the Young Catholic club recently formed here.

Hear Views On Museum Problem

Assemblymen - Elect Tom Carroll, Berkeley Bunker, Hap Hazard and Rev. C. H. Sloan met Tuesday evening at Tom Carroll's office to discuss with the Chamber of Commerce committee headed by K. O. Knudson the question of control and maintenance of the Overton museum. Others present at the meeting were James H. Down, Mrs. Gamble, Dr. William S. Park, Al Cahlan, and C. P. Squires.

During the discussion it developed that fear has been expressed by some of the people of Moapa Valley that the museum of archaeological relics established near Overton several years ago might lose some of its exhibits by their removal to the museum being established by the National Park service at Boulder City.

It was brought out that there is a vast area of prehistoric ruins in both the Moapa and the Virgin valleys which may be excavated and which will yield a large quantity of valuable museum exhibits and that there is no need for removal of any exhibits from the Overton museum.

As the outcome of the discussion K. O. Knudson and his committee were requested to interview Supt. Guy Edwards of the National Park service regarding the matter.

City Meeting Hears Charges

The meeting of the city commission called for last night got under way promptly at 7 o'clock as scheduled, but due to the large crowd present to hear the charges against two Las Vegas liquor stores, the meeting was transferred to the district court room in the courthouse.

Charges had been made by John Cahlan, juvenile officer, that two liquor stores had sold minors intoxicating liquors. The stores charged by Cahlan were the Exchange bar and Rose's Liquor store. Ethel's Liquor stores were mentioned in the supposed confession of one of the youths, presented to the city board by Cahlan, but upon examination it was found that no purchases had been made from these stores, so Mrs. Rapaport, owner, was excused by the mayor.

In opening the meeting, Mayor Marble made it plain to those present that the meeting was in no sense a trial—that the commis-

(Continued on Page Twelve)

Ralli President Of Ahepa Club

Sunday evening the Ahepa organization held an election of officers for the coming year. Paul Ralli was elected president; Jim Adras, vice-president; Gus Christopher, secretary, and John Stathis, treasurer; Nick Megas, captain of the guard; Ted Konduris, chaplain; George Miller, warden, and George Sackas, sentinel. Paul Kuvellis, George Pappas, Nick Angelos and Gus Corey will compose the board of governors.

The organization is sponsoring a lecture in the L. D. S. church at 8:30 Thursday evening, December 22, when Prof. A. Polyzoides will talk on "Facing a New Year in World Affairs." Many will remember having heard Dr. Polyzoides speak at the Ahepa charter dinner and others will remember his radio programs. He is considered an authority on world affairs.

Taxpayers Meet Is Postponed

The meeting of the Taxpayers' association scheduled for last night was postponed for some future date on account of court cases in the district court room. The date of the next meeting will be announced in the next few days.

Yesterday's meeting of the taxpayers was called for the purpose of discussing the recall petitions against Mayor Marble; to nominate a candidate for mayor in the recall, and hear other business.

Asks Ralli To Repeat Lecture

The Age is in receipt of a letter from Mr. H. Stevens which speaks in high terms of a lecture recently delivered by Attorney Paul Ralli. It says, in part:

"Thursday evening, the first day of December, I attended at the Eagles hall a lecture on 'Democracy vs. Dictatorship,' by Paul Ralli.

"I was so impressed with the importance of the lecture that I feel it would be a great benefit to the local schools if repeated."

The Age transmits the request to Mr. Ralli with the suggestion that he give it favorable consideration.