LISTEN TO THIS

By TOM FIZDALE

The sparkling humor of Ken Murray made such a hit with listeners when he made two guest appearances that he has been signed as regular proctor of that Wednesday night Star Theatre on CBS. Funnyman Murray rates as one of the select few vaudeville headliners who successfully weathered the advent of commercial radio and talking pictures by being conscripted for the upper bracket of each medium when the "two-a-day" became a lost art. His weekly exchange of barbed quips with Ned Sparks, Frances Langford, Kenny Baker, et al, reach more people than

Jack Haley's advice on becoming a radio comedian reads: "Study the screwy dialect of Arty Auerbach, take a course in double-talk, filling your mouth with marbles, and make believe you're addressing a six-months-old child." Sounds simple.

Lovely Joan Banks, featured in Her Honor, Nancy James, is only two years out of High School but she has already starred with top radio names like Walter O'Keefe and Stoop and Bud. She is a talented comedienne as well as dramatic actress.

Joan Banks Youth No Handicap

It's Rancher McGee, he's known as in these days. Anyway, Fibber McGee is looking over ranch houses in California's San Fernando Valley. Wouldn't you love to listen in on his conversations with the real-estate agents?

We caught Eileen Palmer of Those Happy Gilmans the other day broadcasting in her stocking feet. Seems she turned up in a pair of those new wooden shoes and the director made her take them off because they made too much noise in the studio.

H. L. Mencken has put his stamp of approval on the inclusion of the word "gracie" in the American language dictionaries to signify "dumb-belle." That makes Gracie Allen one of the few living persons to become "a word for it."

Loretta Poynton Has Hollywood Habit

George Gaul of the Theatre Guild and Jane Seymour of "The Women" have joined the already star-studded cast of Big Sister.

Want to be a radio actor? Then don't be yourself, is the advice of veteran Bill Adams, heard on Your Family and Mine. "The trick of real acting," Bill says, "lies in losing your own identity and acquiring that of someone else."

Little Loretta Poynton, Chicago radio star, journeyed to Manhattan recently for a film test and this candid shot between scenes indicates that already she has taken up the Hollywood fad of crocheting.
