

Pensive Wins Huge Purse With the Kentucky Derby

By OSCAR FRALEY
United Press Staff Correspondent

LOUISVILLE, Ky., May 6 (UP)—Pensive, chestnut colt from Calumet Farm, came out of nowhere in the stretch at Churchill Downs today to win the 70th running of the Kentucky Derby and the largest purse in the history of the blue grass classic. Broadcloth was second, Stir Up third, and Shut Up fourth.

Never out of the money in his two-year racing career, the son of Hyperion, given a smart ride by little Irish Conn McCreary, hammered home along the rail to finish four and a half lengths in front of Mrs. George Poulson's Broadcloth.

The Calumet color-bearer, from the same stable that sent Whirlaway out to win the 1941 run for the roses, was caught in 2:04 1/5 for the mile and a quarter.

Pensive's pace was two and 4-5 seconds slower than Mr. Longtail's record winning time three years ago.

Trailing in third place, and barely getting into the money, was the favored Stir Up who had paraded postward in the field of 16 three-year-olds with his backers in the roaring crowd of 60,000 fans having backed him down to 4 to 5. The Greentree gelding barely saved the show money from Erlanger Stable's Shut Up.

Winner of $65,200

The winning performance of Pensive was worth $65,200 to owner Warren Wright, breaking the money winning record of Shut Out who earned $64,750 in taking the 1942 run for the roses. The large number of starters had boosted the total purse to a record $86,700—$450 more than in Shut Out's triumph.

It was a great victory, too, for plain Ben Jones, the trainer, giving him his third Derby triumph. Ben had little Eddie Arca aboard his previous two winners, but the hardboot booter was up on the Greentree's favored Stir Up today. So Jones had to put McCreary aboard Pensive today and the cocky Irishman rode a well-rated pace to win Colonel Matt Winn's big red blanket of roses.

Sixteen thoroughbreds went postward in search for Derby gold and glory just as the sun broke through a cloudy sky that throughout the morning had threatened rain. And Pensive was well back in the pack when they sprang from the gate and thundered past the clubhouse the first time around.

McCreary Makes His Bid

As Stir Up, Diavolaw, Gramps Image fought it out around the turn into the backstretch, McCreary still was content to lay back until the time was ripe to make his bid. It came when they barreled around the final turn and started the drive for the wire. As they came down the broad brown racing strip like

Californians Good Fishboners With Best Early Takes

Those southern California anglers know the swing of the thing and are giving a demonstration of their skill in the Fishathon. Two Los Angeles sportsmen took the first day's prizes of $25 war bonds for the best catches in the Hotel Las Frontier's exciting contest.

Dr. W. E. Wallace and Ed Whitlock, both hotel guests for the Fishathon "duration," did the trick, the former with a Lake Mead bass weighing 6 lb. 2 oz., and the latter bringing in a Colorado river 2 1/2 lb. rainbow.

There was a lot of potential prize catches weighed in by Fishathon Director Burt King at the Gay 90's Bar the first day. Those who brought them in are trying again, of course, and any one of them may be the next top-notch. More than 50 contestants have registered and they're still coming.

Among the new entries are: Mrs. F. H. Meisner, R. B. Griffith, J. C. Richey, J. Meyers, Merle Frehner, George Skilstead, Lieutenant R. K. Allen, Jim Whitlock, G. B. Nellis, Dr. W. E. Wallace, L. T. Meisner, Tutor Scherer, Ernie Amante, Claude Tetsworth, R. W. Kimmont, Charles Fine, H. M. Cubberly and Joe Wells.

Angels Enter Win Column

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6 (UP)—The Los Angeles Angels broke into the win column for the first time today in their series with San Francisco, winning 4-2 in a tight contest after losing four straight to the Seals.

The Angels took a one-run lead in the first when Miller doubled into leftfield and scored on Rip Russell's single. They added three in the sixth to overcome a San Francisco lead when Miller beat out an infield hit, Cecil Garriott doubled and Russell was walked to fill the bases. Moore then singled to score two runs, and after Pete Elko was purposely walked to again fill the bases, Russell scored on a fly out.

The Seals tallied in the second when Hank Steinbacher scored with bases loaded on Joe Sprinz' infield out. Their second run came in the fourth when they filled the bases on Del Young's walk and singles by Sprinz and Pitcher Bob Joyce. Johnny Cavalli was walked to force Young across.

Clown Grim Bosses Cubs

CHICAGO, May 6 (UP)—Charley Grimm, the clowning happy-man who gained a permanent place in the hearts of Chicago baseball fans when he led the Cubs to first division spots for six seasons, returns Sunday as manager of the cellar-dwelling national leaguers.

James T. Gallagher, Cub general manager, announced today that Grimm will resume management of the Cubs at Wrigley Field tomorrow in the double-header against the Pittsburgh Pirates.

Grimm left Milwaukee tonight and will sign his new contract before the game Sunday. Terms of the contract were not announced.

Owner Philip K. Wrigley has signed Casey Stengel, former Boston Braves manager and Grimm's long-standing friend, to succeed Grimm as manager of the Milwaukee Brewers. Grimm's added duties as acting president of the Brewers, in absence of President Bill Veeck, who is with the marines in the southwest Pacific, will be handled by the Milwaukee office staff.

Bruins Hand Bears Defeat

BERKELEY, Cal., May 6 (UP)—The UCLA Bruins handed the California Bears their first defeat in CIBA baseball today in the first game of a two-game series, taking a 4-0 victory behind the four-hit pitching of Baker Garrison and Frank Frerick.

Garrison hurled until the beginning of the ninth, when Frerick stepped in to cut a possible Bear rally. The Bruins scored twice in the second, once in the third and once in the seventh for their first win of the year over California and their second triumph of the season.

Mike Knouff, UCLA right-fielder, tripled in the fifth while Jack Myers, UCLA first baseman and Lew Leipowitz, California, hit doubles.

Lady Wrestler Jailed

MARTINEZ, Calif., May 6 (UP)—Mrs. Dolores Arietta Bridges, 22, husky former lady-wrestler of Crockett, California, was lodged in the county jail here today to serve a one-month sentence for allegedly stealing two coats. Formerly of Fresno where she had been a wrestling champion, Mrs. Bridges recently moved to Crockett. She told Crockett police judge J. W. McNamara she had taken the coats in payment of three dollars owed her.

Trojans Take Bears' Hides

BERKELEY, Calif., May 6 (UP)—The University of Southern California track team defeated University of California 83 to 48 today in their traditional track and field meet held at Edwards Stadium.

Taking 12 first places in the 15 track and field events, the Trojans rolled to an easy victory over the Bears with Al Lawrence leading the USC squad with 18 points.

Lawrence won the pole vault at 13 feet, copped the 200-low hurdles in 23.9 seconds and the 120 highs in 14.8 seconds and placed second in the broad jump for the day's outstanding individual performance.

Roland Sink, young Trojan miler, took his specialty with ease over MacElliott and Don Walker of California. His time was 4:23.2. M. Sink came back to win the two-mile run in 9:54.7, a USC freshman record, track officials announced.

In the 880-yard run Paul Lacono, star Trojan halfmiler, won by 75 yards over Jim Jordan and Lee Huntington of California in one minute, 56.8 seconds.

Olympic club trackmen participated in the dual meet as guests but Johnny Fulton, Stanford runner who had been expected to challenge Lacono in the half-mile and quarter-mile, did not compete. Emerson Heiler of the Olympic team took an unofficial first in the discus throw with a heavy of 147 feet, 8 1/2 inches, although Roger Harding, California, won the event with a toss of 139 feet, 1/2 inch.

Woman Track Star To Defend Titles In National Meet

HARRISBURG, May 6 (UP)—Many veteran female stars including four defending champions will be among 125 registrants expected for the Annual National A. A. U. Women's track and field meet here July 8.

Earl Flickinger, secretary-treasurer of the Harrisburg Amateur association and a National A. A. U. committee member, said these competitors already have entered the meet, the first of its kind in Pennsylvania.

Stella Walsh, Cleveland, America's oldest competing champion and holder of the 100 and 200 meter and broad jump titles; Dorothy Dodson, Chicago, five times national javelin champion; Alice Crachman, Tuskegee Institute, Alabama, five times national high jump champ, and Nancy Capertwhaite, New York City, 86 meter hurdles champion.

In addition Flickinger said, many other familiar A. A. U. performers are expected to compete, including Jeanette Jones, Harrisburg, who won the 50 meters race in 1942 and placed second in last year's Cleveland events; Mildred Yetter, Philadelphia, former shot put title holder, and Mary DeShay, Philadelphia, former 50 and 100 meters champ.

Entries will be received until July 1 for 11 events including 50, 100 and 200 meter races, 80 meter hurdles, 400 meter relay; high and broad jumps, shot, discus, javelin and baseball throws.

Servicemen and veterans' clubs are co-operating to give the event a military aspect, Flickinger said. He added that $500 worth of trophies and prizes already have been obtained.

"This will be the first time the title event will have been held in a city the size of Harrisburg," Flickinger said, "but we hope to make it the most attractive in A. A. U. history."

Hollywood's 5th Straight

HOLLYWOOD, May 6 (UP)—Hollywood and Oakland continued their "comedy of errors" series today, but Hollywood also continued its heavy hitting to give the Stars their fifth straight victory over the Oaks, 8 to 4, at Gilmore Field.

It was a tight duel through the seventh inning with the score tied at 3 to 3. The Stars had tied the score in the seventh with a two-run rally featured by Babe Herman's continued pinching success.

But in the eighth inning Oakland pitchers Jack Lotz and Italo Chelini, who followed him, and even Al Hert, the third Oak pitcher of the inning, collapsed and yielded six hits and five runs.

Through the seventh inning, there was only one earned run on each side, a home run by Oakland's Jack Caufield and Ray Olsen's third round-tripper.

Earl Escalante, who relieved Charlie Root, was the winning pitcher, Lotz the loser.

By innings:
 Oakland 101 010 001—4
 Hits 002 020 010—5
 Hollywood 010 000 25x—8
 Hits 021 100 36x—13

Jade Boy Big Derby Winner

SAN MATEO, Cal., May 6 (UP)—Mable Cooper's Jade Boy won the $10,000 added California derby in a photo finish over Okana at Bay Meadows today.

Jockey Neves rode Jade Boy to victory in 1:45 3-5 to return $6.30, $3.90 and $3.20 to backers.

Okana, coupled with Sun Goose, paid $4.30 to place and $3.60 to show and Orion paid $5.90 to show.

The Maytime handicap, with a purse of $2500 for two-year olds, was won by Gay Allset, the longest priced horse in the race, who paid $148.50 to win by whipping the even-money favored entry of Double F. F. and Dowry. Blue Alibi was second and Double F. F. was third as Gay Allset came from fourth position in the stretch to win by a nose.

The Uncle Tom's Cabin handicap for a purse of $2,000, was won by Bull Reigh. The son of Bulldog led from wire to wire and withstood a stretch challenge by War Knight, with Pirate placing third.

Time for the mile and one-sixteenth was 1:44 2-5, two and two-fifths seconds slower than the track record equalled by Bull Reigh last fall.

Total handle for the day was $749,634, a record for this year.

Eddie Snyder, Nevada 4-H club boy, and his grand champion steer at the recent Nevada junior livestock show in Reno.

RENO, May 6—Nevada's first junior grand championship for a beef calf was awarded to Eddie Snyder, Lyon county 4-H club boy, at the Nevada Junior Livestock show here. Young Snyder, finishing his tenth year as 4-H club member, exhibited an animal of exceptional quality.

Weighing 910 pounds, the yearling steer was sold at auction for 51 cents a pound to the Humphrey Supply company, bringing $464.10. The wet carcass dressed out 65 per cent of total weight, exceptionally high.

Young Snyder's achievement is a culmination of years in agricultural activity. The past two years he has been president of the Nevada 4-H club organization. He also has served as president of the state organization of Future Farmers of America. Last year he won the Thomas E. Wilson State meat animal contest for 4-H club members.

The youth has exhibited livestock at each of the five Nevada Junior shows, and before that exhibited at West coast junior shows at South San Francisco and on Treasure Island.

A graduate of Lyon County High school last year, Snyder is helping his father, Roland Snyder, operate the family farm in Mason Valley.

Max Terhune Thrills Vegas Kiddies at "Uncle Dickey's" Party

Uncle Dickey is one of the most popular guys in town as far as the kids are concerned. He puts on a big party for them every Saturday afternoon at the Vegas theatre, but he had some competition a couple of weeks ago when Max Terhune, famous cowboy star and one of the "Range Busters" crowd, arrived on the scene and really threw a routin', tootin' whing-ding. There were 750 of the younger set on deck. That's Max in the center with the ten-gallon hat on.
