

Tenth Annual Helldorado Beauty Parade

May 21, 1944

1—Beauty contest winners—in the center is Dorothy Arden, first, at the right Gene Saconi, second, and at left Donna Tudor, third.
 2—M. W. Davis Jewelers float, winner of first prize in the Las Vegas entries. Hazel Stite is riding on the float before a teepee.
 3—Basic Magnesium, Inc., float, winner of the out-of-town division. Jeri Goff, beauty entrant, rides on a modernistic float formed of magnesium.
 4—Boulder City chamber of commerce, second place entrant in out-of-town division. Beauty contestants are Beverly Lewis, Hazel Holland, Catherine Jones and Bonnie Hickman.
 5—Mounted color bearers of Las Vegas lead the beauty parade.
 6—Las Vegas chamber of commerce, portrays a page from history, with Pioneer Bill Morgan, as John C. Fremont, handing a key to the city to Nadine Pickett, beauty entry.

7—Nevada State highway entry is decorated steam shovel, with Virginia Nielsen riding in the bucket
 8—The Hotel Last Frontier "Indian headdress" entry won third place in the out-of-town division. Riding on the float is Bella Tykkin, "Miss Ramona."
 9—El Rancho Vegas portrays a gigantic saddle, with Frankie Brown riding as beauty entrant.
 10—Las Vegas Rotary club float depicts a boat, with Colleen Scheer at the wheel and Bill Rafael in the bow.
 11—Vegas Cleaning Works has the silver state of Nevada for a background and a burro in the foreground. Beauty entrant is Pauline Hoffman.

12—Pioneer Club depicts "Pistol Packin' Mamma," with Mary Johnson standing between two gigantic pistols, while the song is played in the float.
 13—Boulder-Vegas Shrine Club float shows a huge fez symbolic of the organization. Beauty entrant is Pat King. The float won second place in the Las Vegas division.
 14—Las Vegas-Tonopah-Reno Stage Line Portrays a gigantic picture frame, with Alice Mikulich standing in the frame.
 15—Beta Sigma Phi sorority of Boulder City shows a flower garden, with four beauties riding. They are Ruth Royer, Mlielr Waycott, Lois Mooney and Eleanor Geltz.