The waters between Iceberg Canyon and Grand Wash are producing some excellent catches of bass and crappie, with a few tackle bustin' cats. Refer to an official chart of Lake Mead and mark the five hot spots that the Crappie Catcher wants to let you know about. Try any one of the five, and please let us know what your luck was, so that we can pass your experience on to other nimrods.

These five hot spots are all in the area between Iceberg and Grand Wash.

1. Boundary Point.
2. Southern tip of Driftwood Island.
3. The point separating Twin Coves.
4. Under the hanging cliffs at Center Point.
5. Any deep hole around Lava Point which is frequently called The Bee Hives.

On your way to Temple Bar, stop at Anne's Bait Shop on Boulder Highway. Anne has the finest crappie minnows in these parts. The price is right, and Anne can't count too well. She usually counts about 15 minnows to the dozen, and then, for fear she has given you a short count, she throws in some extras when she completes her count. The same goes for waterdogs. You get from 15 to 18 dogs to the dozen when Anne counts, and the price is right at a buck for each of her generous dozens.

If you plan to invade the happy fishing holes, you must plan to spend the night. See our column of last week for our tip on how to make a crazy heater for your boat. You better not venture out there without a heater, or you will be an Iceberg in the canyon of the same name.

When you pick up your bait at ANNE'S BAIT SHOP, get 6 dozen minnows, and two dozen water dogs for each fisherman. You will need every bit of that bait for you start back home from your trip to Iceberg.

Look up, in one of our recent Fishing News, our tips on how to trick those foxy crappie, and how to catch those Big Boysie tackle bustin' catfish.

We will be seeing you at one of those hot spots on just about any weekend. Please let us know how you did. We want to pass the word along to others.

Local lighthavy Lee "Honey-Boy" Osborne looks impressive in the gym as he begins to scale down to his fighting weight of 173....The lad will work several days in the Liston camp before the Champ leaves the city. If we receive the notice in time, we'll let you know so that you can take a run out to the Thunderbird to watch this kid in action....You'll be hearing a lot from this kid throughout the year especially after he trains himself into shape....Some agreed and hundreds don't that Clay will be your next heavyweight champion. We would like to have your opinion of this forthcoming fight which is going to take over the sport pages in the weeks to come. Drop us a line and we'll print as many of the letters as we can each week regarding this fabulous big money fight. Already I'm out on the limb by saying that Clay will be the next champion. I further predict that the end for Liston will come in the 6th round and not the 8th as pre-fight chirped by Clay, but something is going to happen during the third and fourth round that is going to cause Clay to make it known that he's changing the K.O. round to the 6th. I'm not trying to sell you a bill of goods on this fight, but I might add that it will be mighty interesting to see the pre-fight odds on this one....

Boys who are interested in joining the Boys Clubs can do so by contacting Robert Reis at the Jefferson Center on Thursday nights....On January the 15, the Boys Clubs will be the guests of the YMCA for a couple of hours of swimming and swim instruction....Boy and Girl basketball programs are now in effect through the Jefferson Center. Further information may be received by calling Joy Haynes or Shirley McDanielsChuck Harris training several new local boxing prospects at the gym at 2nd and Bridges each evening at 6....We would certainly like to hear from some of the local bowling teams, scores and plans....This is a later report from New York City concerning plans to stage a triple champion fight in the Yankee Stadium during the World's Fair which is to be held in NYC. Championship bouts would involve the welterweight, middleweights and the lighthavyweight divisions.... Those who missed the film showings of the last Patterson-Liston fight can still do so each afternoon at 2:00 p.m. out at the Thunderbird where Champion Sonny Liston is training for his forthcoming fight.... Archie Moore is no longer being listed in the ring ratings. Instead he's being listed among the top 25 new talented faces in the motion picture industry. Archie will be featured on another segment of Wagon Train in two weeks. During the past year, the ex-lighthavyweight champion has received ten different acting assignments within the motion picture and television industry.
