Geo. Washington Carver's Advice to Youth

The opportunity is here for the youth of today. With all the forces at work today in favor of youth, I can think of no better advice than this poem by a great American -- a great Negro American -- Dr. George Washington Carver:

You've all that the greatest of men have had,
Two arms, two hands, two legs, two eyes,
And a brain to use if you would be wise,
With this equipment they all began.

"So start for the top and say 'I can.'
Look them over, the wise and the great,
They take their food from a common plate
And similar knives and forks they use,
With similar laces they tie their shoes,
The world considers them brave and smart,
But you've all they had when they made this start.

"You can triumph and come to skill,
You can be great if you only will.
You're well equipped for what fight you choose;
You have arms and legs and brain to use,
And the man who has risen great deeds to do
Began his life with no more than you."

"THE FUNNIEST THING HAPPENED TO ME THE OTHER DAY"

Bob Reid was pushing a cart in Thriftmart Supermarket the other day which contained among other things, his screaming little son.

As he proceeded along the aisles he kept repeating softly, "Keep calm, Robert," "Don't get excited, Robert," "Don't yell, Robert."

A lady watched with admiration and then said, "You are certainly to be commended for your patience in trying to quiet little Robert."

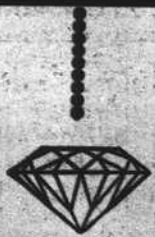

"Lady," declared Bob, "His name is Johnny. I am Robert."
