

WHO'S WHO!?

By EDDYE K. KIM

HAVE YOU HELPED?

If you haven't already contributed to the annual Easter Seal campaign, be sure to do so before it's too late! The big drive that began on March 1 has only a few days left to go— March 29.

Mrs. Eugene Lewis, campaign chairman for West Las Vegas, has been working hard, along with her aides, to make the current drive for funds a success. This is a very worthy cause and deserves the support of our entire community.

ONE RING will lead to another for Marilyn Branch when she becomes the bride of Sammie Armstrong on Saturday the 28th of March.

In honor of the pretty bride-to-be, Mmes. Lola Hall, Ruby Garland and Cornelia Ward hosted a bridal shower in the honoree's home at 500 Wyatt St. on Sunday afternoon.

Sharing in the excitement of opening the many beautiful gifts was the bride-to-be's sister, Margaret G. Rivers, who will be her sole attendant. Margaret is currently studying at U.S.C. in Los Angeles. She brought home with her from school three classmates--Bobbie J. Lewis, Doris Johnson and Irene Creques. Looking on with pride was the bride's mother, Mrs. Margie Collins, and grandmother, Mrs. Willie Bell Crooks.

The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. George Armstrong of Camden, Ark., who are here for the wedding.

Among the guests at the shower were contemporaries of Marilyn and her mother, including Jean Childs, Gwendolyn Isom, Cynthia Keller, Joanne Wilson, Connie Nichols, Lynn Williams, Mary Bowie, Gloria Miller, Claudine Goldstine, Lee Berda Rose, Catheryn Hightower, Maurice Walling, Cornelia Ward, Genath Carr, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wittaker, Vera Bullock and Dorothy King.
